Chapter 1 The Meeting

It was late in the summer, on one of those days that we all enjoy so much. The sun was beating down like an unbelievable hot lamp. The lake was as smooth as glass, and the pine tree looked like soldiers standing at attention. I was on my first vacation since graduation from High School, two years ago. It brought back many memories of the trips we took when I played football.

I drove up to this remote resort, parked my pickup, and started looking around.

The sun was just about ready to drop behind the mountains. Little log cabins scattered all thought the timber as if they owned the whole lake. Which I later found out they did... I looked around to see that the boat docks were empty, and no one seemed to be on the lake. I went to the office too check-in. Entering the office, a young man in his early Twenty's; he asked if he could help me, I replayed "Yes," I have a reservation. He walked over to the counter and picked up a list and asks my name? Kevin Baron I replayed. He said "Yes here it is" You are in cabin 60 down by the lake shore, is that OK. I told him that would like to see the cabin first. Sure he said.

We left the office and headed for the cabin. While walking, the young man asked why I picked this place for my vacation. I told him that I greatly enjoyed being in the mountains, and close to the lake, and needed the privacy this place offered.

The young person told me he felt the same way. He told me his name was Chris, and if I needed anything, anything at all just let him know.

As we entered the completely isolated cabin, Chris asked if everything was suitable. I said, sure just fine. He then asked if I was uncomfortable in those sweaty cloths, I said "I was, and when I get my things, I am going to change into to something more your stile." As he was wearing only a blue swim suite and a skin colored mesh T-shirt.

The room was satisfactory with a double bed, a little stove, and sinks in the corner.

What a superb view of the lake, which was only few feet from the cabin. A very large rock was on one side and the other side was a thicket of trees, this cabin really had privacy.

I told Chris that I would take the cabin. He asked if I needed help with my things.

I said sure why not. Chris said why don't you just wait here and I will bring you gear and the registration form. Chris had left before I knew it.

I waited almost 30 minutes and Chris had not yet returned. So I started for the office and meet Chris on the trail coming toward me. Chris said he was sorry but the phone. You know how, that is, do you not. I told him yes and that I could take it from here. Chris said No, A promise is, a promise and headed for my cabin.

Chris entered the cabin first and put my gear in the corner. He then went to the desk and asks me to fill out the registration card. I filled out the card and ask him if he always helped all the guests. Chris said sure I always try to be helpful. I ask how long he had work here. Chris said "two years." I then ask what he did for fun around there? Chris said, "On my days off I do some fishing, swimming, and just goofing around. I ask how many people work at the resort? He said, "Seven, and I am the manager." Chris then started telling me everyone's job. Well, Jerry he is the boat man. Tom is the maintenance man. Rich is the lifeguard, and Susan is the night clerk. Chad is the fishing guide. Bill, he is filling in, and me you already know my job and winked at me.

I knew right away that I had made the right choice in coming here for my vacation. Dose everyone does the same things for fun around here. Chris said, sure but Jerry is only 17, and quite shy, he hasn't come out yet, you know, around other people. Chris said "why don't you get into your trunks so we can take a quick dip." I said "great idea, what about the office." I will go back and tell Bill to fill in for a while. I said "Sure why not."

Chris left the cabin and started up the trail to the office. I just wondered what was on his mind. Who knows, maybe I find out later. I was about ready to get out of my traveling cloths. I was hot and sticky from the heat and wanted to go swimming anyway.

A few minutes later there was a knock on the door, Chris said are you ready Kevin? I said "not yet come on in while I change." Chris entered the cabin and sat in a chair facing the bath room. I began removing my shirt, letting Chris see my bare, but tan chest. I then glanced at Chris, he was starring at me. I kicked my shoes into the corner. Then started unbuckling my pants, removing them, standing in front of Chris in my underwear. I noticed Chris was becoming aroused by the way he kept glancing at my crotch, and the bulge in is trunks. I then pulled my shorts off and stood in front of Chris completely naked. I walked to my bag, opened it, and started rummaging around, looking for my trunks. I thought this guy might be a lot of fun to screw around with. I was thinking he might want to play around to, so I just let him watch me, I figured the more he saw the more he might like. I started to put on my trunks, just then Chris said, "To bad it's still a little too early or we could go skinny dipping." I went ahead and got into my trunks, I said "let's get wet!"

I was the first one in, and then Chris jumped in. So Chris and I swam and goofed around in the lake until dark. Then Chris started acting silly. Chris came toward me, grabbing me around the waist, threw me on my back and we both started horsing around. He reached out and brushed my crotch with his hand. Oh I am sorry he said! That's OK I replied, it felt good. You like that sort of thing he asked? Sure it just did not last long enough, I told him. He then reached out and traced my cock with his fingers, then slipping his hand up the leg hole of my shorts, rubbing my cock, giving it a pat or two. I said so this is what you meant by goofing around, I then reached out and slipped my hand under his waistband grabbing his cock, and squeezed it hard. He was as hard as a rock, and boy was I becoming turned on. In seconds I was just as hard. Then Chris stepped away, and started pulling down his trunks very slowly. Exposing his cock an inch at a time until the tip sprang into view as his trunks released it. That cock was as hard as a rock, and pointed straight up, an easy 8 inches, then tossing his trunks on the beach, he grabbed his cock and started stroking it. I said "aren't you afraid that someone will see you?" No, if anyone sees us they will probability join in! I said "are you saying that you all do this sort of thing." Chris said "well, sure even the some of the other guest" but no one seems to come out after dark. So I began to pull my trunks down slowly. Chris stopped me and said "here let me do that."

Chris started playing around with my ass and grabbing my cock rite through my trunks, rubbing it softly. I returned the favor by grabbing his cock.

Boy was it hot, and rock hard.

Chris playing with my cock was making me go wild! Chris grabbed my trunks by the waist band and started to remove them slowly, until my cock popped straight up, we almost looked like twins. He then tossed my trunks on the beach. Both of us, now naked, standing in knee deep water, and cocks pointing at the sky!

My knees buckled with pleasure, when Chris grabbed my cock, and started stroking it up and down getting faster and faster. All this time I had been stroking his cock just as fast. Then Chris's hairless chest began to show signs of heavy breathing, about this time I was ready to shoot my load, I said "Chris I am ready to come."

Chris started pumping my cock faster, and faster until I said, "Chris I am coming shit, I am coming," I shot my load all over his chest. Chris said "I am ready too."

Leaning over and whispered in my ear "this is surly going to be a great two weeks." Shooting his load all over my tits, then slowly licked off his come.

I told Chris that was a lot of fun, and maybe we could do it again soon. Chris replied saying, "Sure Kevin, maybe we can have a party one night." Then Chris walked up, picked up his swim suite, put it on, and headed back to the office. I thought what a meeting!

Chapter 2

The Fishing Trip

After that first night with Chris, I felt great. I got up and wanted to take a quick dip, boy was it cold!

I headed for the office to find Chris and see what kind of trouble I could get into today. Seeing Chris I said "Hi, how was your night." He said "OK." I saw a sign the read "Guided Fishing Trips," I asked him how much a fishing trip would cost.

Chris said the boat was on him, and I would have to pay Chad. I said "fine, how can I find Chad." Chris told me to check down at the dock. I said OK, I will see you later, and started out the door. Hay Kevin! How about tonight, OK if I stop by. I signaled back with an approving hand wave.

As I approached the docks, I saw Jerry helping some other guest with their boat. I waited for him to get free, while waiting I noticed that Chris was right about him, great looks, nice tan and seemed a bit quite and reluctant to speak out. He was about five ten with light brown hair and looked 15. Jerry came over and said, "What can I do for you, Kevin." Surprisingly, I said "how did you know my name." Oh Chris told me all about you. I said "all good things I hope." Oh yes, Jerry said.

Well, Jerry I want to go fishing right now and Chris told me that I could find Chad down here. Jerry said I will go get him for you, take boat 7 down there, pointing to the end of the dock, that's Chad's boat.

I went down and got in the boat and waited for Chad. I looked up and saw Jerry and another guy coming onto the dock. I thought that cannot be Chad, can it?

Jerry stopped at the boat house and the other fellow came up to me with his hand outstretched. I am Chad, I here you want to go out and catch some big ones! I said "sure do, take me to them!" Chad got in and started untying the boat. Saying Kevin how about giving us a push. I took an ore and pushed us away from the dock while Chad started the motor. Away we went across the lake. I was just taking in the sites, when Chad started talking to me. Well, Kevin the big ones are way back in the north cove, we should get there in about five minutes or so. The black rod is already, use it!

So I said "Chad how did you know my name?" Oh Chris and I sleep in the same cabin, and we talked about you. Chad how old are you? Eighteen, why? You just do not look that old! By this time we were just starting into the cove. Chad said, "You can start fishing anytime now." So I pick up the rod and started casting.

Time past, and hour or two, only two fish in the cooler, then all hell broke loose, as I turned around to see what was happening. To my surprise I saw Chad's naked ass enter the water.

By the time I noticed anything; he had gotten undressed and jumped in for a swim. He swam up to the side of the boat and asked if I wanted to join him. As it was getting hot, I said, "I didn't bring a suit. Chad said "what do you need a suit for; no one ever uses them up here." What about someone seeing us, I replied!"

You got something to hide, and started laughing! You fucker you just wanted to come up here to screw around. Sure why not, from what I heard last night you enjoy that sort of thing.

So I started taking off my cloths, I was down to my shorts, when Chad got back in the boat behind me. I bent over the seat to put up my cloths, when Chad reached out and pulled my shorts down... I said "can't you wait for me to do that." "No"

Just then I felt Chad's hands on my waist, one quick pull and we both went swimming. The lake was cool, but felt great. He swam around behind me, griped my waist, and pulled me up against his hard cock. His cock jammed up against my ass. I said "feels hard." "It is," he said. Suddenly I felt him enter me to the hilt, he started fucking me right there in the water. I just stood there, in chest deep water, enjoying the action while Chad pumped away. I asked him, what was the hurry? I then told him that his turn was coming. Chad reached around my waist and grabbed my rock hard cock and started stroking it with the same motion he was using to fuck me.

I told him that I just enjoyed it when someone playing with my belly button, it got me horny quick. So Chad put his left arm around me and poked his finger in my stomach, feeling for the hole, all the time keeping up the action on my asshole.

Deep inside, I was starting to feel that well-known thrill. Chad said "I guess Chris was right." Oh shit I am ready to come shit I am Coming, I am coming.

I felt his hot come shoot up my ass. That triggered everything and I let out a deep grown, and started to shoot my load right there into the lake. We just stayed locked up for a few minutes to catch our breath. Then Chad pulled out and I turned around to face him, then I grabbed him in an embrace, giving him a kiss.

Then we got back in the boat. I started to get my cloths when Chad said "what are you doing, you finished for the day." No, I said, I just don't want to get burned out here in this hot sun. OK Kevin I will pull over to that shady beach, pointing to the west side of the lake. So we moved and beached the boat.

Chad reached under the seat and pulled out a blanket and spreads it. The blanket was small. I ask Chad if he had another one. "No" he replied; just share this one with me. I said "OK," so we both lay down so close to each other that our warm skin touched. Chad fell asleep and then I drop off. When I woke up, Chad was still sleeping. I had a big time hardon. So I rolled Chad over, plugging his asshole with my cock. As he woke up, I said "I told you your turn was coming.

Chad laughed and said "I want to suck you off," so I hopped off and laid on my back while Chad got into a 69 position above me. I began sucking that big cock of his, he was hot and hard. Chad reached for my cock, which was throbbing and the tip was purple with excitement, and pulled it to his mouth, sucking it with all he had.

I felt him sticking the tip of his tongue in the hole, and I just went nuts. I did the same to Chad's cock, he jumped with excitement, and then we both roll over onto our sides. Chad reached down and fingered my belly button again, and with the other hand grabbed my balls, stroking them gently. So I did the same, and Chad said he never had anyone play with his belly button before and seemed to enjoy it.

We both kept sucking. Chad was sucking so hard I felt as if my insides were going to come out the tip of my cock. Then Chad said "Kevin lets get in the water and do this." So we went down to the lake and started again. All the time we just played with each other's balls, sucked cocks, fingered belly buttons, having a ball. I started to feel that pressure building again. Telling Chad, "I going to come soon" Oh hell I am here, god is it great, oh shit I am coming. Chad said "me too, shit you taste good."

Then we both just relaxed for a minute or so. Chad said "man I never shot a load like that before." I said "It the belly button trick." Chad said "I will have to tell the others about it." I asked him what others? Chad laughed saying "well I do share a cabin with Chris, don't I. I'm still trying to make it with Jerry." Telling me that he was always looking for new action. Chad yelled over to me saying its time we start back. So we headed back. As we arrived at the dock, Chris was waiting; Chris said "how did the two of you make out." Chad answered "cough an eight and nine incher." Chris smiled and looked at me.

My fishing trip turned out great and I headed back to my cabin.

Jerry's First Encounter

That day of fishing was probability the greatest fishing trip I had ever taken. It was about 5 o'clock so I went for a walk around the lake. I was walking by the dock when Jerry came out of the boat house, locking it for the night. I spoke saying "How was your day Jerry." He turned around and looked at me saying "Fine, how about yours." OK I replied, what are you doing tonight? Nothing special he said. I said that Chris might stop later, why don't you stop by to! Well, he came over, and started walking down the beach with me. I told him, I had herd that he was quite and shy! Jerry spoke up and said "well I am the youngest guy around here." I said "that's nothing to be bashful about!" Well, the rest of the guys think I am too young to be hanging around with. Fuck that shit; you look old enough for me to hang around with! I just turned seventeen, yesterday. Well happy birthday, kid. Maybe I can help you break the ice, if you come over tonight.

Jerry said "well I have to go get cleaned up. I live over on the other side of the lake in cabin 21. All I have over here is what I'm wearing." He was wearing a green swim suite and flip-flops. I said "well you could come to my cabin and clean up." Jerry looked at me and said, "You don't mind, but if you guys go to town, I don't have any cloths here." I said, "If we go somewhere you can barrow some of mine, we seem to be the same size." Jerry said, well OK then, as we started toward my cabin, Jerry asked me how old I was, and I told him that I was nineteen. We headed back to my cabin, just in time to see Chris walking up the path toward the office. I stopped and ask if the cafe was open, he said "sure." I waved and so did Jerry as we continued walking. We got to the cabin, and I ask Jerry if he would like something to eat? "Yes" he replied, well you make yourself at home and get cleaned up, while I go up and get some burger's OK! Jerry said "OK," and out the door I went, heading for the cafe.

I picked up some burgers, fries, and drinks, no beer they don't sell it. I started back to the cabin; upon arriving I opened the door. Surprised was I, to see Jerry, lying naked on the double bed, covering his growing with his hands so I could not see his hardon. Rolling over, he tried to hide it from me. Then he said, "I didn't expect you back so soon." I told him, not to be upset; I beat off all the time. And when I see someone else doing it, I just get horny, and want to join them. Jerry looked at me; his face was bright red, with a look of interest in his eyes. I again told him not to be upset, or was he unhappy with my remarks. Jerry got up and reached for his swim suit. With his back toward me, and put it on, saying "No I am not upset about anything, you just caught me by surprise."

I walked over to the desk and put down the burger's, let's eat! Jerry joined me and we each had a couple burgers, fries, and a soft drink. After we finished, Jerry, still somewhat embarrassed about my interruption, looked at me and ask if I truly meant what I said. "What are you talking about." I ask. Jerry said "when you came in you told me you beat off." Sure I replayed. He then said, "With other guys too!" I enjoy screwing around with other guys; they just make it more interesting. Jerry got up and went over to the bed, and laid down on his stomach.

He said, "Why don't you get out of those city duds then."

I said OK, and started pulling off all my cloths except my underwear. I then got on the bed, rolled over facing Jerry. We just looked at each other, I was dreaming about what was about to happen in the next few minutes if I played my cards right. After about five minutes of bull shit, I realized that my cock was rock hard and from the way Jerry was talking and looking at me, so was his. Just then Jerry rolled over, his hardon was trying to get out, and the tip of his cock was starting to come over the waist band of his trunks. I took the lead and said the hell with this shit. These cloths have to go! Jerry said, "What are we going to do beat off!" I told him not to worry and get out of that swim suit. Jerry raised his ass, pulling down his trunks showing me his hardon for the first time, I just watched him, as he was ready, and so was I. I saw his cock pop out and point straight at his chin.

Jerry said, "Aren't you going to take off your underwear?" So I raised my ass sliding my underwear off, exposing my hardon to Jerry for the first time.

I asked, "Jerry have you ever done anything like this with other guys before?" No, he replied, No I take that back, my little brother, back home. Well, what did you and little brother do? Well, Kevin the only thing we ever did was look at fuck books and watched each other beat off. Well, there are no fuck books to look at, so why don't we just watch each other beat off then. Jerry said "OK." And started playing with his cock. I said, "We will start slow, and get to the more advanced stuff later when Chris shows."

Jerry jumped up saying, "You mean Chris's coming over for this?" Sure, I told you, he enjoys fucking around too! I didn't know that? Chad too! Well, I'll be!

Well enough talk; I said lets get down to business! I started playing with my cock. Jerry said, "This is more fun than doing it with my brother, and we don't have and fuck books." I said, "You want fun! Yea Jerry said! Well just reach over here and grab my cock and play with it, while I play with yours." Jerry smiled and said "are you sure about that?" I told him that I do it all the time with other guys. Just lie back, if you feel like doing something, just do it, nothing is out of bounds, and don't be afraid of what happens! So he reached over and gently touched my hot throbbing cock. I made it jump so he grabbed it harder and gave it a tug. I reach over gently squeezed his hardon, he let out a moan. I started to stroke his cock, up and down a few times, he started showing signs of pre-come leaking from the tip. His stomach was twitching, mussels jumping and he was starting to moan out loud.

I said take it easy or you will pop to fast. Jerry said, "I can't help it." It feels so dammed good. I stopped for a second, so Jerry could recover some. He grabbed my pre-come soaked cock again, and started beating it like a jack-hammer. I started on him again; he let out a loud grown. I said, Jerry try as hard as you can to keep from coming, this will make the feeling even better.

OK he said, as I increased my action on his cock, boy did he start jerking and twitching. Oh shit Kevin this feels so dammed good, never anything like it with my brother! Well, take it easy and make it last for as long as possible! Every vein in his cock looked as if it was going to burst. The head was a deep purple and he was jerking, and twitching so fast I knew he was on the thin edge. He had stopped playing with me; the excitement was too much for his first time. So I got up, without missing a stroke, leaned over and sucked his cock.

That did it! Jerry wiggled like a fucking fish out of water and blurted out. "I can't stop Kevin, oh shit I can't stop!" That OK Jerry let me have it all! OK Kevin. He was shaking so much I could not keep his cock in my mouth, so I grabbed it again, stroking it as fast as I could. Jerry yelled, "Do not stop, it feels so good."

He shot his load, and what a load! It landed on his chest. I licked it off, flicking his tits with the tip of my tongue, driving him wild, for almost 20 minutes. That fucker still had a hardon!

Jerry said, "I never was able to keep a hardon this long before. I feel as if I could come again right now." That's because you never made out with me before!

Don't get excited, save some for Chris! OK Kevin, Jerry said, now let me do you!

No, I can wait for the other guys! Kevin, you said other guys! Yes, Chris for sure and maybe Chad too! We may have a regular orgy tonight.

We both put on our shorts and waited for Chris! About 45 minutes past and no Chris, its 8 and Chris should have been here by now, he is an hour late.

Jerry said "well I best be heading home, it is a long walk to my cabin." Shit Jerry why don't you just spend the night here? Well, Kevin I don't want to be a nuisance you know. That's crazy Jerry I would enjoy your company, so stay here tonight, besides you still owe me! OK Kevin lets get with it.

Don't be in such a hurry; let me take care of a few things. Let me close the drapes and lock up. I don't want to be bothered any more tonight; I have all I can handle with you.

Before I got on the bed I slowly started pulling off my shorts again. Jerry watched me, and said he wanted to start on me before taking off his trunks. This way you get you kicks first, because I just can't handle excitement, and do you too. I said "have at it."

Of course I was soft by now, so Jerry started playing with my balls and cock. In no time I was hot and hard. Jerry went down on me and sucked like a pro in and out of his mouth my cock slid. By now his cock was stiff and trying to get out of his trunks. I just waited and enjoyed the attention my cock was getting. Then he came up and pressed his warm body against mine. Rubbing his bound cock against my throbbing cock, which made me so horny I about shot my load right then.

Jerry slid back down to suck on my tits, playing with my balls with one hand and the other stroking my cock. I think you are better at this than you let on Jerry.

No, I just learn fast. Then the action increased and he started pumping away on my cock faster and faster, sucking first one tit then the other, gently playing with my balls.

It did not take long before I was jerking and twitching with excitement my stomach felt as if every muscle in it was ready to snap. My cock turned deep purple from the attention it was getting.

Jerry looked at it and said "not bad for a beginner, ha." I just nodded yes, because I was going to come any second now. Jerry said "am I doing it OK." I said, "Just great, oh shit I cannot hold back any longer." Oh fuck you are good, at this; I shot my load all over both of us.

Jerry said "I have never tasted come before it won't make me sick or anything, will it Kevin?" I don't think so; I have been eating it for some time now. OK I try it, he started licking my come off my chest and stomach until I was clean, saying that taste salty but good.

OK, now lie down on your back and I will clean you. Jerry rolled over. I got on top and started licking my come off this chest, and sucked on his tit's one at a time. While I was spending my time on his tits, he started playing with his cock, inside his trunks.

I just let him do his thing, while I kept sucking his tit on one side and pinched the other one, he started to jerk, and twitch again. I stopped and got a hold of his trunks, sliding them off slowly while he kept stroking his cock.

I got his trunks off and watched him for a moment that cock was so purple and hard. I slid back up, only this time I rested my body on Jerry and humped him on the way. Jerry moaned saying, "Dam that feels great, keep it up for a while."

I did until; I felt all his mussels start to jerk under me. I got up and started sucking his tit again.

Jerry was wiggling around and his free hand grabbed my cock and balls as he let out a moan. Jerry moaned again, "Oh Kevin we got to do this more, Oh shit I am loaded and ready to come again." OK Jerry let it go between us! Here it comes, Kevin OH boy, here it comes. Man this kid must be loaded, He shot half a cup full all over both of us. I lick Jerry clean of his come and then he licked his come off my chest stopping at my tits and playing with them. I said, "Jerry I'm dead let get some sleep, and maybe later a replay." Jerry said "sure I have to work tomorrow anyway." We both got under the sheet, because it was still hot. I laid on my side and Jerry rapped his arm around me with his soft cock up against my butt, we both fell asleep. During the night Jerry's hardon woke me up, it was almost as he was trying to poke it up my ass. Although he was still fast asleep.

So I played with his cock until I fell asleep again. We both woke up, facing each other, and I had a hold of his cock. He had a hold on my cock, Jerry and I were covered with come. Jerry said, "What happened anyway..." I said, "Don't know, but we must have had fun doing it." Jerry got up and headed for the shower, I headed for the lake for a dip, and it was just as cold today as yesterday.

I went back into the cabin and Jerry was drying off. Great night ha! Jerry said, "Sure was, but I am late for work, can I spend another night with you sometime soon, as he started out the door." I yelled at him as he was heading toward the dock "No problem, anytime."

The Great Day

Well, after Jerry left for work, I just went back into the cabin and started putting my cloths away. Then I remembered, I need some things from town. The nearest town was about 50 miles away, so I figured I would just make a day of it.

So I left the cabin, heading for the office. I arrived at the office, and Susan was still there. "Hi, you must be Susan." She said "sure am, can I help you." Yea, is Chris around. She said, "Just a minute, I'll find him."

Chris walking in saying "Hi Kevin, sorry about last night but I had to take someone to the Airport in town. I told Chris that it was OK, and not to worry, there was plenty of time. Chris said, "Chad was telling us about your fishing trip yesterday. Had a great time too! Sure did, I replied, can hardly wait for another!

I asked Chris if he needed anything in town. He said, "Why, are you going in." Yea, I need a few things myself. Rich said he needed a lift, Chris replied. Who's Rich anyway? He said, "I told you about him the other day." Oh yea I remember now.

OK, where can I find him, I'm leaving now. Chris said, "I will get him for you, it won't take a minute..."

Chris and Rich meet me out in the parking lot. Chris spoke, "Kevin this is Rich, take good care of him, he is our lifeguard, and we need his services around here and winked." I understand, we should be back by 5 or so!

We headed out of the parking lot. Rich said, "I am staying in town tonight, so you don't have to wait for me." Then asked me where I was from and how long I was planning on staying. I told him that I lived in Utah, and I was on my first vacation alone, and planned on spending two weeks. He started talking about my fishing trip with Chad, I here you two of you had quite a time yesterday.

I just started laughing, and said news travels fast up here. Rich said, "Well among us guys!" As we headed for town I was thinking of what was on his mind.

Of course that did not take much thinking. Rich slid down in the seat and pretended to fall asleep. I just kept on driving, watching the road as we drove along. Then I felt something on my leg, rubbing it very softly. He said, "You don't mind do you." I said, "Be careful, I am driving." OK he replied, and slid his hand under the cuff of my shorts, he reached my crotch. Taking hold of my soft cock, and gave it a tug. Of course I started getting a hardon when his hand touched my leg. I said, "Why don't we pull over somewhere out of sight." OK Rich said, as he pulled his hand out of my shorts.

As we pull off the road Rich was pulling off his shirt. I spotted a group of trees and bushes that would hide the truck from view. I stopped the engine and told Rich that the mat in the back of the truck would be a good place to make out. He said, "Quite talking and lets get with it."

I pulled off my shit and jumped into the back of the truck, then took off my shoes and socks. Rich jumped in after I did and pulled off his shoes, and then started to pull off his shorts. I followed suite and pulled off my shorts. Rich said "lets 69 it OK." I laid on my back and Rich reached for my underwear as I reached for his. We both pulled off the others. As I pulled on his jockeys his cock started to appear, it was already hard. As the waist band cleared the tip, it sprang out and pointed toward my mouth. Meanwhile he was about ready to do the same thing to my cock. I felt my cock spring out as he slipped my short off. Then I felt his warm mouth find my cock and boy did he start sucking. I reached up and grabbed his hot hardon and began sucking on it. We must have sucked for twenty minutes or more and all at once Rich started to twitch and groan. He was built like a lifeguard and with a small waist too. But as I sucked his cock he twitching and sucking in his stomach. Rich said as he let my cock out of his mouth, "You sure know how to do this, oh shit do you, don't stop, shit don't stop." As he was shooting his load into my mouth I could feel myself get ready to pop my cookies.

As he was beating my cock as hard as he could. I just couldn't hold back any longer. I shot my load all over his chest and tits. I rose up and licked his tits' one at a time until they both were clean. Rich said, "That was sure great, but I must get to town." I said, "No problem, let get dressed and move on." We both got dressed and jumped back into the truck and headed for town. As we got near the city limits, Rich said, "can you just drop me off at the Post Office. I won't be going back until tomorrow, I'm off until Wednesday." OK, I said, and pulled up in front of the building. Rich said, "Thanks for lift, see you Wednesday."

I just drove around town taking in the sites, and looked for a Kmart or something like it. I found a discount store, so I picked up some more cloths and some beer.

When I stopped for gas and asked the guy, what was going on in town today? He said not much this time of year. I paid him, when decided to take in a spin around town. I was wondering what action may be in store for tonight. Hoping that Jerry would come by or maybe Chris. I arrived back at the lake at about 5:30 and went to the office to see if Chris was there. Sure enough there he was working on some books. I said "Hi, what the hell are you up to." He turned around and laughs, saying "waiting on you to get back; how was your trip"? Oh I suppose OK! He said, "Don't sound like you had a productive day." Well, I dropped Rich off and picked up some beer, and that's about it. Chris are you coming by tonight?

"No" he replied, I have to much work to do, tomorrow night for sure, OK! No problem I said, business is business! I left and headed for my cabin with an arm load of beer & cloths. Figuring someone would probability stop by later.

I had just put everything away. When someone knocked on the door, come in I yelled. And no surprise, there stood Jerry. He said, "I just got off, and saw you come home. I didn't see you around today." Oh I went to town and pick up a few things and, some beer! No sodas tonight; good ha! What's you plans tonight, I asked. Nothing special, unless you want to give me some more lessons, he said.

Are you going to spend the night? I don't want to be a pest! Jerry replied. I told you anytime didn't I. Yea but, No but about it, if you want to stay, stay!

Jerry finally said, "Well this swim suit is so dirty, I need to get a change from my cabin. I told him he could wash them out here if he wanted to. No he said, I'll just run back to my cabin and clean up and come back over. I told him as he left, "don't ware yourself out, if you want more lessons"! He yelled back saying, "OK I will see you later." I went up to the cafe and grabbed a bit, figuring, it would take Jerry and hour or so to get back. I finished my meal and headed back to my cabin to wait for Jerry.

Back at the cabin Jerry was sitting on the front step, wearing a pair of cutoffs and a T-shirt, waiting for me. I opened the door and said, "You beat me; I just went up to grab a bit." He said, "I figured that's what you were doing," I grabbed a snack at my cabin.

I offered him a beer. Thanks he said, what are you going to teach me tonight. I said, "We'll see what pops up, Jerry looked at me and opened his cutoffs exposing his cock. Saying, "This is what popped up!" I smiled at him saying, just hold on and give me a chance to get cleaned up. OK he said, are you going to take a shower? Yea, when I get out of these cloths.

I started taking off my shoes and socks, then my shirt. I unbuckled my belt and started to pull off my shorts. Jerry came up and grabbed them, helping me take them off. He then pulled my underwear off, I turned around, and he was taking off his cloths. What are you doing, I asked. Well, I figured we could shower together if you don't mine. No problem, I answered.

We both got in the shower, and Jerry's cock was already point at the ceiling. I said hold on; don't get so excited we have plenty of time. I picked up the soap and started washing myself and he grabbed it out of my hand and started washing my back working his way down to my ass. Then he reached between my legs soaping up my crack and balls. This turned me on and my cock sprang up in no time. Then I turned around and let him soap up the front side. He grabbed my cock first and lathered it up good. Of course, stroking it! It felt great! Then he started up my stomach, paying special attention to my tits. I told him to do the same to my belly button, as that makes me hornier! Jerry then lathered up both hands and started working me over. First my cock, then my belly button. My legs acted as if they were made of rubber, and my cock felt like it was going to pop, it was so hard. My muscles began twitching and Jerry said, "You are about ready to pop aren't you." I sure am, you learn fast don't you. Oh shit I can't stop, here it comes. It took me a minute or so to recuperate.

Then I grabbed the soap and told Jerry to turn around, I lathered up his back and butt working my way between his legs grabbing his balls, he jumped, then I turned him around. When I got him facing me I began washing his balls and cock, he was already twitching, so I moved my hand up to his stomach. Paying special attention to his belly button, which was deep set like mine. I took my other hand and grabbed his back pulling him against me. Then I kissed him sticking my tongue in his mouth. He almost past out. I then pushed him back and worked on his cock again. I then told him to fuck me in the ass. He said, "I can't there's not enough room." I said don't worry, we will do that later. Jerry started to twitch and jerk, and I knew he was about to pop. So I pushed my finger deep into his belly button, and with the other hand, sped up the stroking on his cock. His knees gave way and I had to hold him up by his cock. He started to moan saying, "Oh fuck its here, don't stop." He just kept coming and coming.

Finally he stopped shooting; we both washed up and stepped out of the shower to dry off.

Jerry picked up his underwear, putting them on, and I ask why? If I don't, I'll have another hardon in no time. What is wrong with that, I said. Shit he said, and pulled them back off, we'll just stay naked for the rest of the night. About this time there was a knock on the door. Jerry ran for the bathroom, but forgot to take his cloths. I asked "who is it." The reply was, "Its' Chad" just a minute, I have to put something on. Chad said, "Why, you ain't got anything I haven't seen already."

Jerry leaned out of the bathroom, and asked for something to put on. I whispered to him saying just stay in there for about 10 minutes and then sneak out and see what is going on, and join in if you want.

I then unlocked the door telling Chad to come in. The door opened and Chad said, as he closed and locked the door behind him, "I see I caught you coming out of the shower Ha." Well sort of I said, what brings you by. Well, I missed you today and figured the bed was softer than the beach.

Then Chad started taking off his cloths, first his T-shirt, then his trunks, his cock was soft like mine. I said, you are not even ready yet, looking at this cock. He said, "We can take care of that can't we." Sure can, was my reply, with that Chad jumped on the bed, and grabbed his cock, stroking it several times until he had a roaring hardon.

I started to play with my cock, trying to get it up. Chad got up and pushed me backwards onto the bed, my legs were bent at the knees. He spread my legs and started sucking on my cock and balls. It didn't take long and my cock was as hard as a rock. We fucked around for a couple of minutes then I rolled him over telling him, it's your turn to get fucked in the ass. Chad said, "Have at it." I said, "do I have a surprise for you." I spread his legs exposing his asshole. Holding my cock, shoving it up his hole, I pushed hard, his hole gave way and I shoved my cock into the hilt. Chad gave out a sigh and twitched. Then I started fucking him slowly.

Jerry had heard everything, so he slipped out of the bathroom, I looked at him, shit that little fucker had a roaring fucking hardon again. Chad had his head turn away from the bathroom so he didn't see Jerry yet. I was still fucking Chad's ass; I nodded for Jerry come over. He sat down in the chair, with a clear view of my crotch and Chad's asshole, I just kept pumping, Chad said that sure feels good can you speed it up a little. I said, just a second, I have to catch my breath, so I laid down on top of his back so my hands were free, and waved Jerry over to the bed, and pointed to my asshole. Jerry had been playing with himself, so he was ready for action. Jerry just mouthed OK, and started to get on the bed with Chad and I.

I ask Chad if he was ready for the surprise I promised him. He said sure, what is it? Jerry jumped on the bed and pushed his cock into my asshole. It went in easy, all the way to the hilt. Chad slid up the bed, as Jerry forced his cock into my asshole, which of course forced my cock deeper into Chad's asshole. Chad moaned out loud, saying, who is that? I said, the shy kid! You mean Jerry? Yea, he ain't shy no more!

I had a hard time getting Jerry in sequence with my fucking, finally he got on and we all were banging away on Chad. I felt that old thrill building up inside my gut.

I knew I couldn't hold out much longer, and I could feel Jerry's stomach muscles twitching again, so I knew that we both were ready. I think Chad had already shot his load.

I heard Jerry start gasping for air, he let out with a groan saying "Oh Kevin I can't hold back any longer, I'm going to pop my load up your ass, OK? Why ask me, just do it like you did yesterday!" Then Jerry yelled, fuck here it is, what a feeling, this is the first time I ever fucked before. As soon as Jerry's hot come shot up my ass, my legs gave out, and I fell on Chad's back, and started filling his ass with come, oh fuck, it feels so damn good. I had to lie there on top of Chad, and Jerry was still on top of me, for a minute or so.

Finally we all became disconnected and rolled around on the bed, sure glad it was a Double.

Chapter 5

A Lasting Friendship Begins

After we rested, Chad said, "I know what a pancake feels like after the two of you tried to smash me into the floor." I said you had a surprise coming. Chad smiled at Jerry and I, saying, "well kid you sure ain't a virgin anymore. Kevin you must be a great guy, getting Jerry to open up."

We were all hot and sweaty from our little romp. Chad said, "I think I'll jump in the shower." Jerry said, "Me next, OK Kevin?" I told them both to make themselves at home. So Chad went to shower and Jerry started talking. He said, "Well Kevin I sure am happy I decided to spend the night. Or I may have missed the fun, Is Chad going to spend the night? I answered, "I don't know, he didn't say." Jerry headed for the cooler to get another beer, and came back and sat in the chair, then started watching TV, some cop show. I laid back on the bed, and watched to. Chad came out of the shower saying, "Jerry you little stud it's your turn." Then Jerry headed for the shower. Chad got a beer from the cooler and asked if I need one. I said, "Sure."

Chad walked over with a beer in each hand, handing me one. Chad said, "Kevin it's getting late and I have some things I have to do before morning.

One of the guest wants to go fishing' at 4 AM." I said, "Well thanks for stopping by, and stop by again, when you can?" Chad said, while he put on his cloths, "Sure, you don't think I finished with you or Jerry do you." OK Chad, I said as he left. A few minutes later I heard Jerry turn off the shower. He came out and asked, "What happened to Chad?" I said, "He had to leave, taking somebody fishing' at 4 AM." Jerry shook his head, saying, too bad I would have liked playing with the big cock of his. I told him not to worry there is still plenty of time for that. We both fell asleep watching TV. I woke up feeling something warm on my cock; I looked down and saw Jerry's head bobbing up and down it. So I pretended I was still asleep, taking a quick glimpse every few seconds. In a few moments I saw Jerry take hold of his own cock, stroking it slowly. It was as hard as a piece pipe, and I was getting horny as hell again. I glanced over to see what Jerry was doing. He was still stroking away. So I let out a grown, saying "You little sneak." Jerry said, "I woke up and you had a big old hardon so I figured I'd just take care of it for yea." I told him to get up so I could show him a new trick. I said, what time is it anyway, he replied saying midnight! I said, "I thought you had to work tomorrow, and need your sleep." Jerry told me that it was his day off and smiled, so we can go at it all night if you want too.

I slid to the center of the bed, and told him to straddle me and slide his feet up under my arms and sit on my cock facing the head of the bed. Jerry said, "What are we going to do now?" I told him that I was going to fuck him in the ass, for one thing, the other; I was going to jack him off at the same time. He said, "I ain't never had a cock up my ass before, will it hurt me." I said that the first time might, but to help get that jar of petroleum jelly out of the top desk drawer. He hopped off the bed, his cock bouncing, and got the jar. I told him to put some around his asshole. He did and got back on the bed straddling me. I said, "Now put some on my cock too." He grabbed it pulling it towards him and started greasing it, stroking it up and down slowly. I told him, "That's enough or I will pop before I can fuck you." He slid around on the bed to get back into position, leaning back on his elbows raising his waist so I could guide my cock. I grabbed my cock, guiding into his hole. Then he raised himself onto his hands, lowering himself until the tip of my cock just started in, stopping with a grown saying, "That hurts Kevin." I grabbed his cock and started stroking it, he started to jerk around settling down on my cock, forcing it in and inch. Yelling, "Shit Kevin that hurts, but feels good to." I told him, wait till you get it all up your ass, you'll pop off before I can fuck you. I kept on stroking his cock very slow, to kept him horny but not fast enough to shoot a load. He twitched and jerked again, lowering himself an inch more, moaning something. Then he couldn't hold himself up anymore, so he sat down on my cock in one fast move all the way to the hilt, jumping back up, just for a second, then sat down full force. Jerry said, "Feels like I got a take a shit, but it sure feel good." All this time I was getting hornier and hornier trying not to pop.

Jerry's cock looked like a big purple balloon ready to burst. I slowly started raising and lowing my crotch in a fucking motion, this drove him crazy, he jumped, twitched, jerked and moaned, saying. "God Kevin this feels so dammed good, I don't think I can hang on much longer." I then reached up with my other hand, and started playing with his belly button. He went completely wild, like I never seen anyone do before, reaching over and pushing a finger into my belly button and the other pinching my tit. Then I started to fuck him as fast as I could, feeling myself building up until I let out a loud moan, saying, "Fuck Jerry I am coming." As I shot my load up Jerry's cute ass, he just exploded shooting his come all over my chest, while he was coming, he was jerking so bad It felt as he broke my cock off, and moaned in grunts and groins.

Jerry just leaned over sliding down the bed enough so he could lick his come out of my belly button, and off my chest, tits and neck. While he was this close to my face, I grabbed him in a bear hug pulling him up my body until his cock touched mine. Then I started kissing him, from cock up, all over. I kept this up for a minute or so, then pulling him up again, saying, "Get on you knees, Jerry." Up he came, I put my hands on his ass pulling up at the same time, until his cock was in position for me to suck it.

He was semihard so I just opened my mouth, and moved my head around until I could get the tip. I sucking it in fast. Jerry started to grown again saying, "It's sensitive, and tickles." I just sucked on his cock and played with his balls and belly button. He started jerking again, his stomach muscles were getting so tight that I could see every rib and muscle in his chest. Then he just about fell over backwards, again he shot another load. I swallowed shot after shot of his hot come until he was empty.

Jerry said, "Gee Kevin that was the greatest lesson. I feel like another shower, how about you." I said why don't we just go swimming! He said that was a great Idea, but was afraid someone would see us. I told him, "At 1:30 in the morning."

He agreed. We both got off the bed, and on the way to the door, he reached over and slapped me on the ass. I laughed and said, "Trying to get fresh ha!" We both hit the water at the same time. Jerry started swimming straight out into the lake.

I followed him, then he turned around and stopped. He waited for me, then whispered, "Kevin you know I really like you, I just might say I love you!" I said, "I am flattered Jerry, do you really meant it?" I sure do Kevin, he replied.

We swam around for a while, the water was cold, then Jerry heading in, got out, standing nude in the moon light. He waited for me, we then went inside the cabin. In the light we both looked funny. His cock was about an inch long and mine wasn't much longer. He said, while flipping his cock up and down, "That cold water makes these things shrivel up a little, 'ha' Kevin." I pulled my cock out and let it snap back saying, "Sure did, didn't it." We both took a towel and dried off. Jerry started talking about what he was going to do this winter when the resort closes. He said that he was hoping to find a job someplace in Utah, but wasn't for sure yet. I told him that I might be able to help him, my boss was always looking for a good man. Kevin, Jerry said, you would do that for me!

Sure guy, I always look out for my friends, and shit, if you get a job with me, you could say with me at my place. Jerry spoke up saying, "Shoot that would be great, how big is your place!" I told him it was big enough for us.. It only has one small bedroom with a double bed, but the living room was good size, and a small kitchen. He replied saying, "Well that must mean we would have to sleep together, 'HA.'" Well, you don't have to live with me if you don't want to Jerry, I replied. Oh Kevin, I was just kidding around, "I just meant that we really would be kind of lovers 'HA.'" Well, It's OK by me, I really like you Jerry!

Jerry just smiled and got on the bed, closing his eyes. I will join you, maybe we'll make it, till morning. As I got on the bed, Jerry grabbed my around the waist, pulling us against one another, so that the full length of our bodies were touching, face to face, legs rapped together, and our cocks pushed together, saying, "Good night Kevin." We both fell asleep locked together, in a lovers embrace.

New Friends

Jerry and I woke up still embracing each other. I said, "Good morning 'stud'," and smiled at Jerry. He said, "Stud! look who's talking," as he reached down and rubbing my cock and balls. You want to go at it again, I said. He replied, "No just thought you needed to know I still care about you." Well thanks Jerry I said, as I played with his cock and balls. We got up and Jerry went into the bathroom and cleaned up. When he finished I did the same. When I came out of the bathroom Jerry was still naked. I said, "Are we going to stay like this all day too!"

Jerry said, "I don't care, we can if you want to." I told him to go on and get dressed, as I reached for a jock strap and my swim suit, and started putting them on. Jerry asked why I used a jock strap. I said, "Makes me horny all day." Jerry said, "Shit I never tried that before. Then I snatched a T-shirt and pulled it over my head, saying, "there's another one in the drawer if you want to use it." He said, sure and got one from the drawer, pulling off his cutoffs, then slipping on the jock, then his cutoffs.

After we both dressed, I asked Jerry if he wanted something to eat. He nodded yes, so I said, "Come on then, my treat, we'll go up to the cafe for breakfast." We left the cabin, stepping out into a bright sunny day.

We arrived at the cafe, entering, and found a booth in the back corner so we could talk somewhat privately. We both ordered a stack of cakes and coffee. Then we shot the breeze until our order came, we ate breakfast. After we ate we just sat and drank coffee and talked about our new friendship.

I asked Jerry about going back to school this fall. Jerry said, "Oh yea' I can see how that looks, me being only 17, no I graduated in June, smart 'ha', skipped two grades in Jr. High." Then I asked him how long this job would last, and what he was going to do afterward, start looking for a new job. Jerry then began to open up, and discuss things about himself, "Well Kevin, until I met you I really didn't know what I wanted to do. Now if I can get a job somewhere near you, or even in the same town. I would love to stay with you. See my folk broke-up years ago. My brother is now in High School, living with mom in California. My Dad, God knows where he is! And my mom and I just don't see things the same way, and we fight all the time. That's one reason I took this job, to be as far away from home as possible. I don't like girls, you know why! I was hoping I could stay with you since the morning after, our first night together. That whole day you were in town I missed you. I just kept thinking, how can I make you want me, the same way that I want you. And when you did, ask me to stay with you, my heart almost popped out of my chest. I really think that's why I took this job, hoping to find a good friend. I didn't expect to, but not only did I find a friend, but a lover too. If you know what I mean, 'ha'."

I told Jerry that he didn't have to worry about me being his friend, and lover. I winked at him, and as for staying with me, that was no problem ether. Even if he had a hard time finding a job, he could stay with me.

Jerry said, "A great friend you are, I just can't believe my luck, of course it took me nearly all summer. Oh yea, Kevin I meant it to when I told you about my sex life, you got my cherry. Oh yak! and I think that this place closes for the winter about a week after you leave." Well thanks, I said. Well what do you want to do today? Jerry said, "why don't we go to a movie in town I haven't been to town yet this summer". Sure I said! With that I got up, paid for breakfast, then headed for my pickup, Jerry following me.

We just farted around town most of the day, took in a movie, did a little shopping and talked thing over about him moving in with me. Then headed back to the lake. We got back to the lake at about 6 o'clock and Chris was standing out front of the office. Chris spoke saying, "Hay you guys, where have you been," Jerry yelled out, "Went to town, and took in a movie." Chris came over to the truck, looked at me and said, "quite a night last night, ha," I said he was missing all the fun. Chris said, "How about tonight, I can't stay long, but an hour or two won't hurt." I said, "sure anytime." Chris walked back to the office. Jerry then asked me what Chris an I had planned. I told him nothing that didn't include him.

Jerry smiled, then said, "I have to work tomorrow, so I can't stay late." Well Jerry I think I can solve that problem, why don't you and I just go get some of your things in the truck, and you stay in my cabin for the rest of my vacation. Sure Jerry replied, and jumped back in the truck. We got a few things from Jerry's cabin, he really didn't need much as you only ware shorts and T-shirts around here. Then headed back to my cabin.

Upon arriving at my cabin, Chris was waiting for me. He said, "What's going on here." I told Chris not to worry, the kid was just going to spend some time with me. And he already new about last night by the way he talked. I unlocked the door and we all entered the cabin. I said, "Why don't we order something to eat."

Jerry didn't say anything, he seemed to be a little shy around Chris. Chris said, "How about some pizza, they have great pizza at the cafe." I said, "Sure, how about you Jerry, is that OK." Sure he replied. With that Chris headed out the door without saying a word. I looked at Jerry and told him to unwind and open up, Chris wasn't going to bite, then I laughed out loud, "I don't think he bites, he hasn't sucked me off yet." Jerry started laughing at the remark.. A new friend had been made, in more ways than one.

Chapter 7

The Four Way Stop

Chris came back with the piazzas and we all sate down wherever we could find a place to sit an ate. The conversation started getting sexy and of course both Jerry and I had on jocks so Chris couldn't see if were getting turned on. But Jerry and I could see the bulge in Chris trunks. I said, "I am getting horny, why don't we get out of these cloths!" Chris looked at me, saying that I didn't look horny. I just started pulling off my shirt, then my swim suit, exposing my jock strap. Chris said, "you sneak, you've got a hardon and no one could tell, that's not fair." Jerry took off his shirt and cutoffs, exposing his jock strap. Chris laughed and pulled off his shirt, then his trunks, exposing his shorts and a hardon that was pulling the waist band away from his stomach.

We all just stood there for a minute looking at each others crotch. Jerry said, "Chris that cock of yours is a monster." Chris said, "It's not that big, I'm sure the two of you can handle it." We all went over to the bed, I got in the middle, Jerry on the left side, and Chris on the right side. I took the lied and reach over and slid my hands under both of there waist bands, first I started stroking Chris's rock hard cock, under his shorts, then I started stroking Jerry's cock under his jock strap. then they both reached over at the same time and grabbed my cock under my jockstrap, Chris had the tip and Jerry had the base. We all started pounding away on each others cocks.

Then Chris said, "Shit lets get out of things," and started to pull my jock strap off from his side, Jerry then started to help him. My cock spring up as they pulled my jock off. Then Chris pulled his shorts off in one quick move. Chris grabbed Jerry pulling him off the bed, and yanked this jock strap off so fast that his cock came down between his legs then snapped back up against his stomach with a pop.

Chris told Jerry to get up on my chest and fuck me in the mouth. So Jerry got up on the bed straddling my chest sitting on my tits. Then I could feel Chris grabbed my legs pulling them apart. Then Chris started sucking my cock, so then I grabbed Jerry's cock and stuffed it in my mouth and started sucking it. I reached up and started playing with Jerry's tits. Chris then stopped sucking my cock and got on the bed straddling me facing Jerry's butt. Chris then guided my cock up his hot ass. Chris sat down on top of my cock so fast I thought he was going to break it off. This made Chris's cock bounced against Jerry's lower back. So Jerry reached around and grabbed Chris's cock and started stroking it very slowly.

Here we all were I was sucking Jerry off and fucking Chris in the ass, Jerry was beating Chris off, and Chris was jumping up and down on my cock. Out of the blue I heard Chris let out a loud grown, then Jerry started twitching and his stomach muscles were getting tight. I was about ready to shoot. Then Chris said "Fuck you guys I'm coming; shit I'm coming; oh man. Chris shot his load all over Jerry's back, and my stomach. About this time I shot my wad up Chris ass, saying "Chris I Hope your ready, I must have shot three or four full shots up his ass.

Then Jerry started jumping and twitching groaning oh; shit I'm coming. And shot his load down into my stomach, because his cock all the way in, his balls bouncing on my chin. It was dark outside now. So we all pulled apart and headed for the lake. Chris was the first one in, then Jerry, I jumped in next. We all fucked around for about 20 minutes or so. Chris yelled out, "There's Rich,"

Hay guy what the hell are you up to." Rich yelled back, "Looking for you!" I thought to myself, now what's Chris up to, we all were naked as Jay birds and Chris was drawing attention to us, of course it was dark and I knew about Rich, but the moon was full. And Rich was a cute kid, pretty well built, and Jerry didn't know about him and I going into town. Chris just headed for the beach, and walked right up to Rich, they started talking. Then Rich started taking his cloths off. I watch from out in the lake. Jerry looked at me saying, "What's up Kevin," are we turning into a four-some. I said, well it kind of looks that way from here. I could tell from the trip, Rich was pretty well hung too. Then Rich jumped in, followed by Chris, they both started swimming out toward us. Rich said to me, "Hi Kevin, never had a chance to thank you for the ride the other day. So when I heard that Chris was visiting you tonight I figured I'd join you." I said Thanks, then started swimming in, Chris spoke up saying, where are you heading I told him I had enough swimming for a while.

Jerry started in too, so Chris said, "We'll join you two in a few minutes. I was standing on the beach when Jerry got in, he walked over to me, patting me on the ass, saying. "Looks like we may have our hands full tonight"! I said the more the merrier. Jerry and I shot the breeze for a few minutes. I felt funny just standing there naked, in the moonlight. Jerry wanted to go inside anyway, he was afraid someone would see us. So we went inside to wait for Rich and Chris. Jerry and I both grabbed a towel and finished drying off as Chris and Rich walked in. Rich was carrying his cloths, so I couldn't get a look at his big fucking cock. Chris said, "why don't we make a daisy chain guys". I Said OK, by me! Jerry sheepishly looked at me asking, What's a daisy chain Kevin? I told him that is where everyone gets on the floor, and sucks someone else's cock. Sounds like fun, he replied. Chris said, I want to suck Jerry's. Well Rich finally put this cloths on the desk and turned around. He had a nice cock, about 7 inches, and a lot of blond hair around it. Everyone was still soft because of the cold water. Chris got on the floor first, then Rich got down and started sucking on Chris's cock.

Then I got down and started sucking Rich's cock, I stopped and told Jerry, "Come on and complete the chain." So Jerry got down between Chris and me, Jerry started sucking my cock and Chris completed the chain and started sucking Jerry's cock which was getting hard watching everyone else sucking a cock.

I was sucking faster and faster on Rich, when I felt a hand on my ass poking a finger into the hole, it was Jerry, that little fucker was learning fast. I then started playing with Rich's ass and balls, he jumped and started to jerk as if he was trying to fuck my mouth. Rich reached up and grabbed Chris's cock and ball giving them a working over. Chris completed the action by grabbing Jerry's cock and balls.

We all kept sucking and playing for several minutes and all of a sudden I felt Jerry bit my cock and grown, I knew he was coming. This got me turned on and I felt myself building up pressure inside. I sucked Rich faster, until he started to twitch and jerk, letting out a grown. Rich started shooting his load into my mouth and that did it. I couldn't hold back any longer and shot my load into Jerry's warm mouth. I glanced over and saw Chris twitching, groaning and swallowing at the same time, I knew he was coming into Rich's mouth and Jerry was shooting his load at the same time. We all just laid there for a few minute to catch our breath.

Chris was the first to speak saying, "Shit guys that was great." Jerry was next, "Fuck I never knew that guys could have so much fun." Rich looked at me saying, "Kevin, you must be a vacuum cleaner, with all that suction." I just said, it was a great trip, It seems as though everybody enjoyed themselves. Well Chris said, "Sorry guys but I have to split, as he put on his cloths, Rich jumped up and said, "Me too." I told them both to come back anytime. They both said sure, as they left.

Jerry said, "Kevin the more I'm with you the more I like you, I really think I'm in love with you!" I told Jerry that I really enjoy him being with me too!

My cock was so sore I told Jerry I was going to put my jock strap back on. He asked if that really helped. I told him it sure does, so Jerry slipped back into his.

We just watched a little TV for an hour or so, I was sitting in the easy chair and Jerry was laying on the bed. Jerry got up to take a piss. I got a beer, and when Jerry finished I went in and took one to. I finished and came back into the room, Jerry was back on the bed with a beer in his hand. Then Jerry said, "Man we look funny in these jock straps."

I laughed and told him that they may look funny but they sure help things get better, faster. It was a little after mid-night and the TV station signed off the air.

Jerry said, "well I guess we should hit the sack, I got to work tomorrow. I said, sure why not. Jerry started to get into bed still wearing his jock strap. I told him, No-No if you sleep with me, you got to be in your birthday suit. Jerry smiled and took off the jock strap, and to my surprise that fucker had a roaring hardon again. I said does that thing ever get soft! Jerry said, "well when I'm with you, No." I started to pull my jock strap off and Jerry stopped me. Saying, "let my do that," he pulled me over to the bedside, reached out and pulling my cock out the side of the strap. He opened his mouth and started sucking on my soft cock, which didn't stay soft long. I reached over and grabbed that hard cock of his and started stroking it gently. Jerry moaned saying, "come on get in bed", pulling my jock strap off, then smelling it for a second, tossing it on the floor. I got on the bed and Jerry got up on his knees, telling me to slid into the center. I did, then he straddled me, telling me that he was going to ride the horse again. He positioned himself over my now hard cock, grabbing it, then started lowering his ass onto my shaft. I felt the tip enter his asshole, he jerked a little. I grabbed a hold of that purple shaft of his and started stroking it fast.

Then Jerry just sat down on my cock forcing it all the way in to the hilt, letting out a loud grown saying, "God that feel good this time." So I started raising and lowering my hips slowly at first and he said, "Fuck me hard, show my no mercy, Fuck me, OH Fuck me Kevin." So I started fucking him faster, then he got in time with me, as I raised my hips he came down fast, as I lowered my hips he raised up. I was stroking his cock so fast my hand was a blur. Jerry than started twitching and his stomach muscles got so tight, about this time I reached up and pinched his tit. He squealed like a stuck pig and said "Oh Kevin I'm coming, shit I'm coming I don't think I can stop. He was shooting load after load of come all over my chest. I couldn't hold out, I just tightened my stomach muscles to make the feeling last as long as I could. Then I just let it go. Shooting load after load up Jerry's sweet ass, as he wiggled on my cock sending flashes from the tip of my cock into my stomach.

Jerry just stayed a straddle my hips sitting on cock for a few minutes, saying, "I love that cock of yours, I think I'll just sit here forever. I told him that would be just fine, but he would have a hard time sleeping in that position. Jerry finally stood up on the bed, stepping over me and slid under the sheets. So did I, then I reached over and grabbed him, pulling us face to face, chest to chest, cock to cock and squeezed him very tight, he returned the hug, saying good-night Kevin, sweet dreams. We both fell asleep in each others arms, and are legs joined together, like too snakes.

Getting to Know A New Friend

Jerry sprang to his feet, letting out a "Oh shit I'm late for work". I jumped and sitting up in bed, asking what the fuck was going on. Then I calmed down saying, "you scared the shit out of me". What's up Jerry. The kid had a big hardon already, and mine wasn't much smaller. Jerry said, "I was suppose to be at work by seven and here it is almost eight". He quickly got dressed and head for the door. I yelled at him, saying "hurry back lover". Jerry turned his head and smiled, then waved. I just laid their for a while thinking about Jerry. A knock on the door came. I spoke saying,

"who is it"? Jerry came the answer. Well come on in squirt, I told him. He tried the door and it was locked. I got out of bed, naked and opened the door for Jerry. Jerry looked at my hardon and said, "I catch you in the middle of something". No I replied, just thinking about you, and that's enough to turn anyone on.

You get fired or something? No, I forgot I have the day off. Why don't we do something special today, sense you don't have to work.

Jerry said sure, why not, I don't have anything planned. I laid down on the bed and Jerry pulled off his T-shirt and trunks. Got on the bed reaching over and giving my cock a pull, making it jump at his touch. I didn't say anything, the kid just played with my cock like it was his private toy. After a few minutes I was having a hard time keeping from blowing my load. I got up and turned around on the bed. Jerry could see that I wanted to suck his cock, so he slid down the bed and we went into a 69 position.

Jerry's cock was hard and purple, he had been playing with himself. I reached out grabbing the kids cock guiding it into my mouth and I had no more then started and the fuck said, "Oh fuck you suck to good Kevin". It felt like he let go with enough come to fill a quart jar. I wasn't far behind him and I popped my cookies, which choked him, he coughed, spiting my come all over my legs. I told him that we needed to get a shower and make some plans for the day. We both took showers and left for breakfast. Jerry told me of a place about 50 miles away that he visited when ever he had a chance. It was a nudist camp, and there was a cave that no one knew about. Anyway he didn't think anyone knew about it. I said, "sure let's go see". We left and headed east on a dirt road. This place had to be off the beaten track if it was a nudist camp. Jerry said, "in case they catch us, we have to join the club Kevin". What's wrong with that, I said. We don't wear many cloths anyway, and laughed. He was shocked by my answer. Jerry said, "this place has girls too."

What's OK with me, if they have girls then the must have boys to. Or is this a girls only camp? Jerry said, "Oh no, the last time I was up here I beat off while watching two boys playing with each other". So don't worry about anything, we can take in the sights and see what happens. We drove along this winding mountain road for hours. Then Jerry said, "its not far now, just around the next bend". Well there was A small sign, Camp Thunder, and the road forked. Jerry told me to just go straight for another half mile or so, then park the truck off the road next to the creek. We parked an locked up the truck. Then Jerry said, "follow me". So we started up though some petty thick timber, walking about a mile, coming to a small opening we stopped. Jerry spoke in a whisper saying just over there next to those rocks we will be able to see the beach. We crawled over and took a look. No one was there, I asked Jerry if it was possible that the camp was empty. He said, "possibility but every time I came up here there were folks around". So we just laid there for an hour or so checking now and then to see if anyone showed up.

We shot the breeze, figuring no one was at the camp. So I told Jerry that we could go down and check it out. Jerry said, "yea why not, no one seems to be around".. He stood up and started toward the pond. The pond had a great man-made beach. A floating dock, and diving board that you had to swim to.

As we arrived at the pond, you could see the camp site and there were three tents still up. So Jerry and I went over to investigate the situation. The tents had cloths, suitcases, and other items. I told Jerry that it looked like these folks were just away somewhere. Jerry said, "fuck that shit lets use the place anyway, OK"? Why not I told him, as we headed back toward the pond. Upon arriving I kicked off my flip-flops, pulled off my shirt and shorts and stood naked looking at Jerry. Jerry said, "Kevin I've never went skinny dipping in the daytime before. Specially in someone else camp site". I told Jerry to shed his duds and come on in, as I walked out into the pond. Jerry strip down to his birthday suit and came out to meet me. I swam out to the dock and pulled myself out and laid on my stomach. Jerry arrived and pulled himself out onto the dock. He sat there with a hardon looking at me and said, "why are you laying on your stomach Kevin, you got something to hide". I just rolled over and let my cock come into view, it was hard, and needed some attention.

Jerry said, "you think we can screw around now without getting caught"? Fuck who cares, I said as I grabbed his cock and started playing with it. In turn Jerry grabbed my cock and started pumping away on it. It didn't take long and we both were shooting come all over each other.

We both rolled off the dock into the water and swam around. Jerry went up to the diving board and did a great cannon ball. Followed with a dick flop (belly flop) and boy did it sting. Jerry just laughed at me. We must have carried on for the best part of three hours. Then we heard someone driving in. We both headed for shore, grabbed our junk, and into the woods we ran like naked bucks. We got to the rocks and stopped to see what was going on back at the pond. We waited for almost an half hour before anything started. Then two naked girls came out onto the beach, swam out to the docks, and lied down taking sun baths. They both were maybe 16 or 17, nice tits and snatches. Then two naked boys about the same age came into view. They jumped in swimming out to the dock. They got up onto the dock and lied down next to the girls. We were to far away to hear what they were saying. Then they started kissing and making out. Jerry whispered saying, "reminds me of us last night". I giggled quietly and kept watching the action on the dock.

After a little while the kids on the dock were fucking, the girls wiggling under the boys cocks, which were rammed into the hilt. They all must have come, because the guys rolled off the gals, and the gals jumped into the pond. Now another pair of guys arrived, both about the same age. Only these two were wearing a pair of hardons. They just lied down on the beach and started playing with each other.

Jerry said, "those two look like the ones I beat off to a couple of weeks ago". I told Jerry that possibility they were gay, and the rest didn't care. Jerry said, "I'm going to go down and see what happens". Oh naked Jerry started walking down toward them. He surprise them, and they both stopped, jumping to there feet, asking Jerry where the fuck he came from. I could here Jerry telling them, "that he and his friend were watching them from up behind those rocks, as he pointed at me, why don't you guys come up there"? The guys said why don't you two join us down here.

I went down to join the crowd, upon arriving Jerry said, "Kevin these two invited us to join them, he pointed at the redhead, this is Don, and pointing to the blond, this is Eric. Nice to meet you I replied, sorry to interrupt you. Eric spoke, "no problem Jerry there told us all about you two. That's why we didn't mind getting interrupted, you two can join the action, OK"? Sure why not I answered. Jerry already had a hardon just watching Eric and Don with there's. Mine wasn't exactly soft ether. Jerry said, "why don't we form a daisy chain guys". Eric said sure, Kevin you and Jerry lay down on your backs head to toe, I'll suck Jerry, Kevin you suck me and Don, you suck Kevin and Jerry, you take care of Don. Didn't leave any one loose, did I?

No I replied. Then all hell broke loose and the fun started. We sucked and we sucked not even stopping to catch our breath. The next thing we knew was come, come, come, and more come, there must have been gallons of it. We all had our share, Don and Eric ask where we were staying, so we told them. It was getting late and we need to start back, so we shook hands with Don and Eric, said good-bye, got dressed and headed back to the truck. We got back to the cabin about 3:30 in the afternoon. We hadn't eaten since breakfast, so we stopped to eat at the cafe.

At the cabin Jerry lied on the bed for just a minute and fell asleep. So I joined him for a nap. I must have fell asleep no sooner than I hit the bed. Because the next thing I knew, I was awakened by a knock on the door. I ask who was there, the answer came, "Jerry". I opened the door and Jerry had changed his cloths. He had woke up and went to his cabin, to change. It was 8 o'clock and time to get something to eat.

After dinner we went back to the cabin, turned on the TV. Jerry said, "sure was a nice day, but I must leave now, see you tomorrow Kevin". I asked, "why the hell do you have the go now, you have already changed cloths. Why not spend the night"? Jerry said, "well you have done so much for me now, I just don't want to be a nascence". Nonsense, you just stay here, OK? "OK then, I'll stay the night", said Jerry. He kicked off his shoes and lied on the bed. I got up taking off my duds and got into bed naked. Jerry got undressed and crawled in beside me. He fell asleep rather fast, and so did I.

A Day to Remember

Jerry woke up first and got out of bed, as he did, I woke up, stretching and saying, "Good-morning Jerry, did you sleep OK." He turned around, his cock pointing at his chin saying, I Slept like a log, how about you!" I said, "great, speaking of logs!" He told me that he always wakes up with a hardon. I tossed the sheet back and showed him my morning hardon. Jerry chuckled and said, "I'm not the only one, HA."

Jerry told me he had to hurry and get to work, or he would lose his job. After last night I don't think Chris would fire you. Jerry said, "I don't want to take any chances now, I need the money."

Jerry then went in and took a shower, I just laid there thinking about what I would do today. Jerry came out of the shower and started to put on a swim suit. I stopped him and told him to put on a jock strap first. He did and then put on his suit, then a tee-shirt. I really have to go Kevin, not that I wouldn't like to spend another day with you,` he said as he left the cabin. I just laid there on the bed thinking about him, and realized that I liked him so much it hurt when he left. I tried to think of other things, no way I could get him off my mind. I just had to figure a way to get him to quit and leave with me at the end of my vacation. I was thinking, he would only miss one paycheck, and that wouldn't be that much. I had a couple of thousand in the bank and some stock. I made up my mind.

I took a shower and got dressed, and headed for the office. I entered the building and there Chris was standing in front of the counter. I said, "Hi Chris, what's up?"

Chris said, "Not much, how was your night?" Great, I replied and ask him if he had breakfast yet? He said, "Yea, why?" I told him that I would have bought it for me. Then I said, "How about a cup of coffee then?" OK, I only have a few minutes as Susan get off pretty soon. We both went over to the cafe. I ordered breakfast and coffee for both of us. The waitress brought the coffee first. I started talking about the resort and ask him a lot of questions about it. He told me that his boss owned the whole lake and the property around it. And continued answering my questions. Saying we pay all the help the same ($55.00 a week plus room), except me I get more than the rest of folks. I then asked if someone wanted to leave now, what would he do? Well depends on who leaves, If it's Jerry, smiling at me, well nothing as we really don't need a lifeguard now, and I would just have Rich take over the boats.

I told Chris not to say anything as I was just thinking about something. Chris said, "Sure, my mouth shut. But Kevin are you really thinking about Jerry." I smiled saying "Yea" I really like that little fucker. And he wants to come and live with me in Utah for the winter, of course he would have to find a job. Chris spoke up saying, "Kevin by the look on your face I can tell your going to do it, so let me find Rich and send him down to the boat docks." Thanks Chris for being so understanding, by the way, could you have Rich send Jerry up to the cafe, and remember not a word to Jerry, OK." Chris said, "Good as done, you two have a great time OK." Thanks Chris, I said as he left..

It seemed like forever passed, then I saw Jerry coming up from the docks. I had a knot in my stomach, I was afraid Jerry's answer would be no or he would be upset with me. So I figured I will tell him some stupid thing now.

Jerry came into the cafe, looking for me, he spotted me sitting in the booth, he came over and sat down, saying, "Kevin what's up. Rich came down and told me that Chris wanted me to come up here and see you, something wrong! I hope not!" He looked worried and upset. I spoke saying, "Don't look so scared, you haven't done anything wrong, how about some breakfast, as you don't have to go back to work today." Surprisingly Jerry said, "What happened, did I get fired?" I just couldn't lie to him, even jokingly, so I told him, no you just got a new job for the next few weeks. When you walked out the door this morning I missed you so much it hurt, so Chris and I had a talk and he agreed with me. I hope you understand Jerry.

Jerry said very loud, "Oh Shit!" I said, "Not so loud, someone might think something was wrong." He toned the conversation down saying, "Kevin I felt the same way this morning as I walked to work, but I really don't think it's right for you to hire me, and of course I understand, I can't think of anything that would make me happier.

The waitress brought my breakfast in and ask Jerry if he wanted something. He replied saying, "the same"! While I was eating, the waitress brought Jerry his breakfast. He devoured it rather fast. I asked if he was hungry or something?

Yea, after last night and no snack this morning, he said.

We talked for a while and then I said, "Jerry lets spend the day on the lake, now that you don't work here anymore. And by the way we have to get the rest of your things out of your old cabin. Jerry looked at me and said, "This is the best news of my life. We left the cafe and headed off to Jerry's cabin. When we got there Jerry said, "Let me go in first and pick up a little." I said why, "I came along to help." Well he said the place is a mess. I told him to unlock the fucking door and lets get with it. We entered the cabin together. I looked around and he didn't have much. I went out to my truck and got a box, as I entered the cabin, I saw that Jerry was putting some magazines in a bag. I went over to see what they were, and not to my surprise they were gay magazines. Jerry got embarrassed when I saw what they were, I told Jerry that I had a ton full of them so don't get upset.

Jerry said, "Well that's all I had all summer to bet off with, now I have you," and smiled at me.

I opened up one of the magazines and this guy had a short stick, almost looked like a pencil, he was pushing it into his belly button and beating his cock. I showed it to Jerry and said, "See I'm not the only guy that likes it." Jerry spoke up saying that he liked it to, since I showed him. I looked up from the magazine and was surprised

Jerry had pulled off his cutoffs and shirt. He wanted to make out with someone in the old cabin before he left it. He reach over and started rubbing my crotch. I was getting a hardon looking at the magazine anyway. He then reached into the leg hole of my shorts and grabbed my hard cock. He said, "Lets get out of these cloths." Jerry let go of me and finished taking off his cloths, his cock pointed straight up. Then he jumped on the twin bed his cock bouncing up and down slapping his stomach. He laid on his back, telling me to hurry up and get my cloths off. I pulled my swim suit off, an at the same time pulled my jock strap off too. My cock sprang up and pointed at my chin, it was so hard it felt like it was going to pop. Then I took my shirt off. Jerry then said, "I want to fuck you this time." So I got on the bed and straddled his chest, he pulled me up by my cock, to his mouth and sucked on my cock for a minute or so.

Then pushed me down so I straddled his hips, I reached down and stroked his hot hardon a couple of times, then moved it around my asshole until I felt the tip of his cock hit my hole. I started lowering myself down on that pole of his. My hole opened up and took his cock in, I squeezed my asshole tight around his cock.

Jerry let out a moan an a grunt, then he reached down grabbing my cock with one hand and the other, playing with my balls. He then started fucking me by raising and lowering his hips. I returned the action, by raising and lowering myself in time with Jerry. I then reach over and grabbed one of his tits, and pinch it hard.

He let out a squeal and twitched and jerked several times. Then I took my other hand an poked my middle finger into his belly button. That seemed to do the trick, his stomach muscles got very tight and started to quiver, he said. Kevin I love you so much, and shot load after load up my ass. When I felt that hot come shooting up my ass. I just let go, not saying anything, just moaning oh. I shot come all over Jerry's chest.

When I stood up, Jerry's cock was still hard, and as it came out of my ass, it slapped his stomach with a pop. I slid down so I could lick him clean.

We both grabbed a quick shower, got dressed and finished packing his things, loading them into the truck. We then headed for my cabin.

Chapter 10

New Friend, New Vacation

We were heading back toward my cabin, and Jerry said, "Are we really going out on the lake today Kevin." I said, "Yea; unless you can think of something better to do!" He just sat there, in a daze. I parked the truck, we both got out and gathered his things, and went to my cabin. Jerry asked me where to put them. I told him to just find a empty drawer, so he did, putting his few things neatly away.

I told Jerry that I should have carried him over the threshold like newlyweds. He laughed saying, "I still can't believe it, I'm really here to stay. Kevin I want to thank you for being so nice to me."

We just shot the breeze for awhile then Jerry said, "I think I'll take my keys back to the office and see Chris." OK I said, I'll join you. We left the cabin and walked up to the office. We entered the office and Chris was working behind the counter. Jerry spoke up saying, "Hi Chris, here are my keys to the cabin." Chris replied, "You don't have to turn them in right away, or do you have all your things out already?" Jerry answered, "Yea, got everything out!" Chris then asked, Are you moved in with Kevin to. Jerry replied saying, "Sure am, an I'm going to enjoy the rest of the summer, as a guest of this joint."

Chris looked at him saying, "Well I hope everything works out great for the both of you. Oh yea, let me pay you Jerry. You did a great job for us." Chris counted out some money, then handed it to Jerry. Jerry said, "Thanks Chris for everything you did for me." Chris replied saying, "Well we'll see you around Mr. Baron." as Jerry an I left the office. Outside I told Jerry, I didn't even know your last name until just now. That shows how much you mean to me. Jerry replied, "Well I don't know yours either, an I can't tell you how much you mean to me." I told Jerry my last name and asked him what he wanted to do? Jerry said well we could go to the cabin and fuck around some more. I told him that we have to take a break for awhile. My cock was kind of sore from all the attention it's been getting lately. He laughed and told me his was feeling quite rough around the edges too.

We went down to the docks. I saw Rich standing by the boat house, we walked up to him and Jerry spoke first. "Rich we need a boat and motor for the rest of the day." Rich said, "OK, I hear you are a guest around here now, I hope you enjoy your day on the lake." And started getting life jackets, oars, and a can of gas out. We all walked to the boat. Jerry and I got in and Rich pushed us off.

I said, "Jerry you run this damn thing, you know this lake better than I do." OK, he said. We will just drive around the lake and I'll show you the sights.

We screwed around on the lake for three or four hours and Jerry headed for the North Cove saying, "Kevin we'll go to a more private part of the lake OK." I said, "Sure, Chad and I were up there that day I went fishing." Jerry replied, "Fishing for what, an 8 incher," and laughed. I told him it started out being a fishing trip, until Chad turned it into something else. As we entered the cove, we both saw Chad's boat, with no one in it. Jerry said, "He is probably fucking someone, somewhere." I asked Jerry if he knew who? He replied, "I think Bill went with him this morning, but I don't know if Bill fucks around or not." So we shut off the motor and rowed the boat over toward Chad's boat. As we approached I saw a naked ass bouncing up and down. I told Jerry to reach out and grab the rope that was hanging off the bow of Chad's boat, he did, then I rowed very easy toward the beach. I whispered to Jerry, "Be quiet and we will see what happens, OK." Jerry shook his head up and down. The two fuckers in the other boat didn't even know we were pulling them. Jerry was watching them as I rowed. I noticed Jerry's crotch, he had a hardon. And I wasn't any different, my cock wanted out of my trunks bad.

We got to the beach in just a few minutes and getting out of the boat I slipped on some moss making a hell of a noise. Chad jumped up looking right at me. He said, "You fuckers what the fuck are you doing." About this time the other guy got up and looked at Jerry. Jerry said, "Hi Bill, what's up." Bill could see Jerry had a hardon by the way it pointed straight up, and the tip of his cock was sticking out above the waistband of this swim suit. Bill replied, "Looks like that thing between your legs should be telling you!" Well Bill wasn't exactly soft, his cock was pointing at the sun, about 9 inches from where it connected to his crotch.

Chad said, "Fuck the bull shit, let's have some fun, now that we have a four some."

He reached under the seat and grabbed that same old' blanket, laying it out on the beach. Jerry said, "I suppose we are all going to get on that postage stamp." Chad replied, "Don't take much room if we do it right." Chad then told Bill to get down on his back.

Then he asked both of us if we were going to join in. We both answered, yea! He said well you had better get out of those cloths, shit in the anticipation of what was coming nether one of us thought about it. So Jerry and I started getting stripped. Jerry pulled his trunks down so fast that his cock pointed at the ground until his trunks released it, then it popped out slapping his stomach with a pop. I was naked and ready for action. Chad said, "OK Jerry, you lay down beside Bill facing the other way. So Jerry got down beside Bill with his head next to Bill's waist, and his waist next to Bill's head.

Then Chad said, "Kevin which one do you want to suck, I'll take the other one!" I told Chad that I'll take Jerry. So I got down on my hands and knees straddling Bill's head, and taking Jerry's cock and put it in my mouth. Bill reached up grabbing my cock and started sucking away. Then Chad got down and straddled Jerry's head and took Bill's cock and started sucking it. Jerry reached up and guided Chad's cock to his mouth and started sucking. There we were all in a daisy chain again, I was hoping Jerry was enjoying himself. I sure was, and by the looks of things so was Bill and Chad. We all kept it up for awhile and all of a sudden Jerry exploded shot after shot of come into my mouth until it drip out the sides down onto his balls. Shit I couldn't hold out any longer ether and shot my load into Bill's mouth, he jerked and I knew he was blowing his come into Chad's mouth. I look over and Chad's stomach muscles looked like they were ready to pop. He started jerking and Jerry started swallowing in gulps, I knew Chad had shot his load of come, and Jerry enjoying it. We all just kind of fell apart, but still laying together. And outsider would think we were a pile of worms, arms, legs and cocks all tangled together. After a few minutes lapsed we started breaking apart. I was first and then Chad. We all got dressed and headed for our boats. Chad and Bill both yelled over saying, "Great time guys, maybe again sometime." Jerry an I said, "Sure anytime."

We started heading back to the dock, Bill and Chad stayed in the cove. As we got closer to the dock, Jerry said, "That was a lot of fun, wasn't it Kevin!" Well I told Jerry that it was, but I'm starting to get jealous when other guys mess around with your equipment." Jerry said, "I don't know what you mean, but I was feeling like I wanted to get Bill out of the way too. Is that what you mean by; jealous?" You got it buddy, and smiled at him. We docked the boat and Rich came over to get the gear, saying, "Today was on the house, by order of Chris." I told Rich to thank Chris for us.. Then we headed for the cabin.

I opened the door and we both went in. I said, "I'm going to take a shower, how about you Jerry." I'll join you if you don't mind, he replied. OK, I said. So we both striped down and went into the shower together. I started washing Jerry from back to front, paying special attention to his cock and balls. He got a roaring hardon, but I left it alone, saying, "We'll leave that for later, OK. Jerry said, "OK," then he grabbed the soap and started working me over, he played with my cock and balls too. And I got a big old' hardon, and I knew he was going to leave it too. We both got out of the shower and dried off. I said Jerry, how about a movie tonight to celebrate our new arrangement. He said sure why not do something special. So Jerry put on a pair of jeans and a red tee-shirt. I figured I would ware the same outfit, I just happened to have bought a red tee-shirt when I was in town. Jerry said, "We look like twins!" I want us to be just like twins, I replied.

We locked up the cabin, and headed up to the parking lot, jumped in the pick-up and started for town. While I was driving, Jerry reached over and rested his hand on my leg, then started working his way up to my crotch, rubbing it. I said, "Shit man that feels good, but you had better back off, or I'll drive off the fucking road, and I don't want anything happening to you now. Jerry replied, well I just though guys like being played with while the drive. I told Jerry, "That only happens in books." Jerry said, "OK, Kevin I don't want anything to happen to you ether."

So Jerry, asked me, "Is it OK if I slide over and rest my head on your shoulder?"

Sure I said, that won't interfere with my driving. Jerry laid his head on my shoulder and fell asleep. I just kept on heading for town.

Chapter 11

A Night on the Town

We were entering town, so I put my hand on Jerry's leg and shook him a little, until he woke up. He stretched, and still have asleep said, "We here already!" I told him that he slept all the way in, and shouldn't be tired.

We stopped at a burger place, one of those fast food type, and went in to eat.

Jerry said, "I'm as hungry and a bear, I need a couple of big burgers, fries and a Jerry shake." I said that sounds good, so I ordered the same thing. Jerry reached into his pocket and pulled out a $20 and paid the bill. I told Jerry to hang on to this money, I would take care of it. He said, "No Kevin I have to pay my way too!" We sat down at the table, and devoured the meal like there was no tomorrow. Jerry spoke up saying, "What movie do you want to see, Kevin?" I said, "I don't know, how many theaters they got in this town, probability only one!" The kid said, "No I think one of the guys at the lake said they had six." I told Jerry to come on and we will find a paper and see what was playing.

We drove to a Quick Stop, Jerry ran in and grabbed a local paper, and came back to the truck, jumping in. He said, "Well let me look see what's good." I just though I'll let him pick the movie. How about "Spring Vacation" it's rated R?" I said OK, how do I find it. He told me that it was south of town on highway 57.

That must be out toward the rodeo grounds, I said. Were you at the rodeo Kevin, the kid asked? I said, "Yea, the time I brought Rich into town." So I knew how to get out of town on that highway. We got onto the highway and started looking for the theater. Jerry spotted it on the left side of the road. I pulled in and parked the truck, we got out locking it up, then went over to the window. I said, "This is on me, you turkey." Jerry went "Gobble, Gobble." I told the guy in the box office, "1 student, and 1 adult," and handed him a $10, he gave me my change. Then we went in and found a seat in the back row. I asked Jerry why he wanted to sit so far back. He told me that he didn't like people sitting behind him. We got there just in time because the movie starter with previews. Then the main feature. The movie turned out to be about a couple of guys almost like Jerry and Me. The movie should have been rated X. Jerry said, "Sure reminds me of a couple people I know, HA, Kevin," reaching over and putting this hand on my cock. I said, "Not in here Jerry!" He said, "Why not, there's no one sitting around us, and we are in the back row, now you know why I sit here." I didn't say anything, I just reached over and started to unbutton his jeans, Jerry looked at me and smiled. After I got his jeans unbutton, he slid them down just enough so his cock sprang up. The kid reached over and unbuttoned my jeans, so I slid them down to free my cock.

It was dark in there, so we couldn't see each others cocks, but we sure could feel them. I then slid my hand over and rested it on the kids leg, kind of sliding it into his crotch, then played with his balls. Of course I was getting a replay of the action on my crotch.

This went on for about a half hour or so, then the movie started getting sexier and Jerry moved first grabbing my cock, squeezing it, then started to stroking it at the same time. I couldn't help but let out a low moan. I slid my hand from the kids balls up his throbbing hardon and felt the come oozing out, which mad his cock slick and easy to stroke. The hotter the action on the screen got the faster we stroked each others cocks. Finally the two guys on the screen showed signs of coming. And that did it for us too. Jerry just shook and moan very low and shot load after load of come all over his shirt and my hand. I licked his come off my hand and I started to felt my guts get tight, then pop; and I shot four or five loads all over my shirt, Jerry reached up and found some of it, putting it in his mouth and sucking his fingers. We slipped our jeans back up. And watched the rest of the movie.

The movie ended kind of sad. As someone shot the older guy, and left the younger one alone. I fact I saw a tear or two in Jerry's eyes. We got up to leave and the lights came on in the theater, I noticed that Jerry's tee-shirt had come spots all over it. I pointed to them and he turned red in the face. Then he pointed to my shirt and laughed. I had probability more come spots on my shirt than the kid did.

Both of us left in a hurry so no one would see us. As soon as we got to the truck Jerry said, "I'm getting out of this dirty thing," and pulled his tee-shirt off exposing his bare chest. I said, I'm doing the same thing, and off came my shirt.

We got into the truck and started back to the cabin. Jerry leaned over and put his head on my shoulder. And started talking about the movie. He started out saying that he sure hoped nothing ever breaks us up, I don't know what I would do without you Kevin now that I've found you. He started rubbing my bare chest while I drove. He just couldn't seem to get close enough to me to satisfy himself that I had no plans of ever letting him go. I reached my arm around his neck and pulled him close to me, our skin touched an felt warm, I said, "Jerry you never have to worry anymore, I don't ever plan on leaving you!" I felt something warm drop onto my shoulder. I glanced at Jerry when the next car passed, I was shocked, he was crying, I asked him what was wrong and he sniffed and said in a choking voice, "Kevin I love you so much it hurt, when I think about those guys in the movie, and how I would feel if anything happened to us. I think I would just go out and jump in front of a truck or something." I hugged him as tight as I could and still drive. I told him not to worry about ever having to do some stupid thing like that.

The rest of the way back to the cabin Jerry never said a word. I figured he was asleep until his hand started pressing and rubbing my bare chest again. I just kept on driving. I pulled into the parking lot, stop the engine and said we're home kid.

Jerry sate up not saying anything. So I got out of the truck and Jerry did too.

We both walk side by side he had a hold of my hand so tight. We got to the cabin, I opened the door and walked in and turned on the lights. Jerry headed for the bath room, still not saying anything. I turned on the TV and started watching it, I felt bad about the way Jerry was acting, and didn't know how to get him out of it.

Jerry came out of the bath room with nothing on except his shorts. I said, "Jerry no more movies if this is what they do to you!" The kid said, "Kevin I normally don't act like this, but that movie really got to me." I told him to wait a minute while I took a piss. I took off everything except my shorts and went back into the living room. Jerry was laying on the bed. About this time the TV went off the air, so I reached over and flicked it off. Jerry looked at me and said, "God you are a good looking guy, you know that." I said, "Now that starting to sound more like the guy I'm in love with." I pulled out one of the magazines Jerry brought over and opened it up. Jerry looked over and didn't say anything, he just watched me.

I started turning the pages, not thinking of what was happening. My cock sprang up pushing my shorts away form my belly. I glanced over and the kid was showing some signs of getting turned on too. So I slowly moved a little closer to the bed. Jerry reached up and rubbed my crotch. I put the magazine down, and slid onto the bed next to Jerry. I reached over and played with his crotch. Jerry spoke up finally, "Kevin I want you to sit on my cock tonight OK." I said, "Now that more like it." Jerry raised his ass up and I slip his shorts off, exposing that cock of his. Then I raised my ass and slid my shorts off letting my cock jump free.

I got up and straddled the kids hips. I reached down and pulled his cock up off his belly and pointed it at my asshole. I started lowing myself onto his cock until the tip pushed it's way in. Then Jerry shoved his hips up fast and that cock of his drove home. It cot me off guard and I fell on him, driving his cock even deeper up my ass. He reached up and pinched both of my nipples, I let out a groin, I wanted him to start working on my throbbing hardon soon. The kid then reached out and barely touched the tip of my cock. Which made it jerk up and down at each touch of his hand. Jerry was fucking my asshole faster and faster, so I reached down an poked a finger into his belly button, twisting it. His stomach muscles got so tight they pushed my finger almost out. The kid let out a loud moan. I knew he was ready to pop. Then he started moaning, "oh, I can't hold on any longer. He shot load after load of hot come up my ass. It felt so dam good I twisted my ass around driving the kid nuts. I Then tightened every muscle I had trying to hold back. This of course squeezed the kids cock and he jerked. But no luck I let out a loud groin and started shaking like a leaf. Oh, Jerry I'm coming, fuck I'm coming, I watched myself shoot load after load of come all over his chest. I just sat there on his cock, wiping my come all over Jerry's chest and nipples.

I started talking to him, but didn't get up. I kept his cock inside of my asshole.

Jerry I said, "You know I think that we should leave for home tomorrow, there are a lot more things we can do together there. And I will have another week off, to spend with you at home." Jerry said, "What ever you think, Kevin," I told the kid that all I wanted was for us to be happy together.

It was getting late so I got up and his cock slid out of my ass, it was blood red, and soft. We both showered together and hit the sack. Jerry rapped his arms around me again pulling me against him so were facing each other again. Then he kissed me sticking his tongue in my mouth. Are cocks were kissing to. We both fell asleep together in each others arms.

Saying good-bye

Waking up together for the first time as lovers felt great. Just knowing that we had a little more then a week to spend together, without the worry of going to work. Jerry looked over and saw that I had my hand on my cock, scratching it, saying, "Got a hardon 'ha'." I reach over under the sheet and got a hold of the kid's hardon and said, "What's this a stick." The kid laughed, reaching over, taking hold of my hardon. Saying lets do something about it, OK.

I then tossed the sheet down, exposing both of our rock hard cocks. I got up, not saying anything. Jerry said, "What's wrong." I just went to the foot of the bed and grabbed the kid's feet and pull him down until his knees bent, feet touching the floor. I then jumped back on the bed. I got over Jerry in a 69 position. Jerry spoke up saying, "I guess nothing, now I see what you've got on your mind," he reached up and got a hold of my cock, pulling it down, then started sucking it. I was on my hands and knees, so I moved my head down and took his cock with my mouth and pulled it up.

We both sucked on each others cocks for a half hour. I rolled Jerry over on our sides to free my hands, we never stopped sucking. I reached over and poked a finger into the kid's belly button, and played with his balls, with my other hand.

The kid jerked and twitched, his muscles got tight. I knew it was about time for breakfast. Of course everything I did to Jerry, he returned the favor. I was starting to feel that sensation deep inside of my stomach and my stomach muscles were twitching. Then pop the Kid shot his load into my mouth, I swallowed, and swallowed, I didn't want to lose a drop of his come. I started shooting my load into the kids mouth, he was sucking hard, I knew he was trying not to lose anything either. I turned around on the bed, while Jerry slid back up. Jerry said, "Now that's the way to say Good-Morning to someone you care for as much as I care for you Kevin." I said, "Well maybe we'll make it a habit, OK." The kid smiled and told me "you bet." We just laid there on the bed naked and started talking. I said, "Well have you thought about, what I told you last night, about leaving today." Jerry said, "Not really, we've been fucking to much for me to think about anything but this." He was flipping my soft cock up and down. I asked him, "Well then, how about it?" The kid said, "OK, I've seen enough of this place." I said, "OK, kid lets get packed, and take off." So Jerry got up, went and took a piss. He came back out, I followed him and took a piss. When I got back into the room, the kid was starting to put his things into one of his two suitcases, he was still naked. I said, "Don't you think we had better get dressed." Jerry replied, "OH shit yea, I'm getting use to running around naked." He reached for his underwear putting them on, then his jeans. I got dressed and started packing my things. We both finished packing and headed for the truck. After putting everything in the bed of the truck. I said, "I'll have to check-out Jerry, why don't you run down to the cabin and make sure we're not forgetting anything." The kid started running to the cabin, an I went to the office.

I saw Chris standing there, I said, "Good-morning guy." Chris said, "What's going on, I see you guys are all packed up." Well Chris, we decided to head home and spend next week, while I'm off, looking for Jerry, a job, I replied. Good Idea, Chris said. Well Kevin lets settle up, we need to give you back, figuring on the calculator, how about $125 bucks, Chris said. Then counted out the money, and handed it to me.

I said, "Chris this has been the best vacation anyone could even think of having!" Chris said as I was leaving, "You two guys have a good time, and come back and see us again."

I saw Jerry running back up the trail. He said, "No Kevin we got everything OK, I want to just say good-bye to Chris, It will only take a minute, OK." Sure, I replied, as I started unlocking the truck.

Jerry came out of the office smiling, looking happy as hell. He jumped into the truck and said, "Lets go!" I looked over at him and said, "What's going on, you look like you just swallowed a canary!" Well you won't believe what just happen to me, Chris gave me a $300 bonus, Jerry said. I said, "Boy that was sure nice of him." Jerry said, "He told me that he wanted to give it to me yesterday but he had to get the OK from the owner."

So I started the truck and pulled out onto the highway and started home. I told the kid it would take about 16 hours or more to get to my place if we don't fuck around somewhere. Jerry said, "By the way Kevin, I've got a drivers license too, so if you need a break I can drive for you." I said, "Great, it is a long drive to make in one day, of course we will probably spend the night in a motel or two."

The kid said, "This is great!" I drove for about two hours and saw a cafe coming up. So I said, "How about some real food for breakfast." Jerry looked at me and smiled.

A Night on the Road

After we had ate we headed on down the road. I pull over after about 2 hours and ask Jerry if he wanted to take the wheel for awhile. Jerry said, "Sure, Kevin." So we switched sides and Jerry took off, of course I didn't sleep as this was the first time I had let anyone drive my truck. It was about 4 PM and Jerry was still driving, and doing a great job, I drop off, the next thing he stop, which woke me up in a flash. I said, "What up?" It was getting dark and we had just entered a fairly good size town, and Jerry was just stopping for a stop light. He answered, "Nothing but a stop light." I told Jerry to pull over and I would take the wheel. So he parked the truck and jumped out, I got out and took the wheel, and he jumped in on the passengers side. I started looking for a motel as we were still a long way from home. I told Jerry to look for a place to spend the night. The kid looked at me and said, "OK Kevin anything special." No, maybe one with a heated swimming pool, I replied. About six blocks away was a nice looking motel with water beds and a heated pool. Jerry said, "That looks expensive Kevin." I said, "What's one night, we need to have fun to."

I pulled up and went into the office to check in, I paid the bill $45 bucks, got the keys, and went back to the truck. I pulled around back and parked, we had a nice 1st floor room with a double waterbed.

We both got out of the truck, I told Jerry that we had to take everything inside so no one would run off with our gear. Jerry grabbed a bag in each hand as I opened the room. I started totting in the rest, and closed the door.

Jerry put the bags down and jumped on the waterbed. Saying, "Shit I've never been on one of these things before. I bet we can fuck on this thing. But I need something more then come for dinner." I laughed at him, "Is that all you ever have on you mind." The kid laughed saying, "Well I beats the hell out of watching TV." I told Jerry to come on and get something to eat. We went to a pizza place and gobbled down a large special and some soft drinks. I told Jerry, "The beer would come later." As Jerry wasn't old enough to drink in public. We got back to the room and I told Jerry to change into a swim suit. I started getting undressed and Jerry looked over as he stripped. I was naked and looking for my trunks.

Jerry walked by me to get his bag and slapped me on the ass saying, "Nice ass Kevin." I looked up and Jerry was naked to, so I reached out and smacked him on the ass, saying, "You too, good looking." We finally got into our swim suits and headed for the pool.

We played around the pool for an hour or so, diving, swimming, and horsed around. Well the horseplay was more like rubbing each others crotch under water so no one could see. Jerry said, "Kevin I think we had better go inside now." I looked at the kid to see why, he had a hardon and was trying to hide it, so I said, "OK lets go." Jerry then jumped out of the pool running for the room. I got out and walked to the room as I had the key. I got to the room and the kid had his hands over his crotch, trying to hide his cock. I unlocked the door and he darted inside. I closed the door and hooked the night latch. I was laughing as I turned around. Jerry spoke, "You fucker, you did that on purpose, you wanted someone to see me, didn't you!" I told Jerry that I sure did, and he was going to have to control himself better. He said, "With someone as good looking as you, especially when they are playing with your balls."

I said, "Thanks for the compliment," and started to take off my swim suit, as I pulled my shorts off, the kid just watched me until my cock came into view.

Then Jerry pulled his shorts off exposing a throbbing cock. He walked over to me and rapped his arms around me pulling me up against his chest grinding his cock into mine, then started kissing me all over working his way down to my cock, which was starting to rise. I then reached down and pulled the kid back up and pushed him onto the water bed. I got on top of him and said, "I'm going to fuck you like you've never been fucked before." Jerry looked funny laying there on his back, cock pointing at his belly button, and me on my knees spreading his leg, raising them over my shoulders. I had a clear shot to his asshole with my cock in hand I pointed it into that little brown hole and shoved it in all the way in one jab. Jerry let out a squeal, and reach up and got a hold of his own throbbing cock, and started stroking it pretty fast. I started a fucking action and the waterbed waves help us fuck. Jerry just kept up the working on his cock, the tip was turning purple and the vanes looked purple too. I was already to unload up his ass. And Jerry's stomach was jerking and his muscles started twitching and he let out a groin saying, "Kevin oh Kevin I love you, I'm coming, oh fuck, and started shooting gobs of white come all over his chest, then wiped it up with his hand and then lick his fingers. I couldn't hold out any longer and I started shooting my load up his sweet ass. Saying, "Gee Jerry don't you ever leave me. I pulled out of Jerry's ass, and headed for the shower.

Jerry followed me in, we both showered together and then hit the sack. Jerry said, "I still can't believe I'm here with you, I think I'm going to have to pinch myself to make sure it's not a dream." I reached over and pinched one of his nipples. He jumped and said, "I'm not dreaming, that's for sure, that hurt," and pinched one of mine. I turned out the lights and said goodnight. I knew what was coming next as the kid slid over and rapped his arms around me, gave me a kiss and said, "Good-night good looking."

We woke up, took a shower together, loaded the truck and started for home. Jerry was as happy as a lark and so was I.

A Special Day At The Hot Springs

We drove a short while till we found breakfast, stopped ate, then headed on down the road. After driving a while I saw a sign saying Hot Springs, I ask Jerry if he would like to go see them? "Sure" he said, "why not, might be a lot of fun" then started laughing. Why are you laughing Jerry. He said "well you know we have not had any fun yet today". Oh, I said, need a little attention, ha! "Well I heard that hot water makes you come faster". OK, are you in a hurry, I ask. No just wanted to find out, that's all.

We drove for a long time, then we saw a large washout in the road so we had to stop and lock in the hubs, use low range and put the old truck into 4 wheel drive to get into this out of the way place. We arrived and looked around, there hadn't been anyone here in a long time, the last rain storm washed out the old tire tracks and the only ones here were ours. So Jerry jumped out of the truck, pulled off his shirt, slipped out of his shoes, slid down his jeans, ran like hell and jumped into the hot water with out even checking its temperature. He yelled out saying "Its hot but feels great, come on slow poke". I just looked at Jerry and was thinking what a nice kid he was. OK I shouted, I pulled off my shoes, pants and shirt.

Then jumped in as Jerry came over toward me. The hot springs wasn't very deep, maybe four feet or so.

Jerry came up behind me, grabbing me around the waist, pulling me under water, then started playing with my ass under my shorts. He said, "There is no one around, lets get out of these, OK"! Of course while he was saying that, he was pulling my shorts off. So I just reached out and grabbed his and pull them down. There we both were naked as new born babies.

I reached out and grabbed Jerry's cock, it was as hard as a steel pipe, and so was mine and Jerry hadn't even touched it yet. I started pumping Jerry's cock. He let out with a loud grown, saying "lets get out on the beach so I can fuck you good".

I said no not yet I want to mount you here in the water, so I grabbed Jerry and pulled him toward me, sticking my hardon up his ass. It slid in so easy. I started pumping in and out as fast as I could but the feeling was so great I couldn't hold back and I just pulled Jerry up so tight against my cock and let it fly. Oh fuck Jerry is feels so fucking good I could just squeeze you to death. Jerry said, "it feels like you are"! My knees buckled with the pleasure of fucking him. Jerry said, "now its my turn". He pulled me to shore, then he laid on his back on top of some moss with his cock pointing at his chin. He told me to straddle him and sit on his cock. Just as I straddled his stomach and had his rock hard cock up my ass we heard the sound of a dirt bike heading our way, I jumped off Jerry so fast that his cock slide out of my ass hitting him in the stomach, Jerry jumped into the pond at the same time I did. We were in about three feet of water when the dirt bike came over the hill. The bike and rider pulled up by the truck and shut down.

The rider got off the bike and looked at Jerry and I. Jerry spoke first saying "Hi there, you come here often"? The rider spoke saying "Oh yes almost every day during the summer". I ask him his name, and why he comes here? He answer came right back saying "my name is Robert and I usually go swimming here". He had to be at the most pushing 16 years old if he was a year. Jerry said, "well come on in and join us. Robert spoke, saying he normally went swimming alone, and didn't bring any swimming trunks. Before I could open my mouth Jerry jumped up saying we didn't ether. There stood Jerry naked, a stiff cock pointing straight up. I yelled at Jerry, "Get down stupid, you've got a hardon"! The hot water had not let his hardon go down. Jerry said, "sorry about that". Robert said, "Well I sure wanted to go for a swim today, now that I'm all dusty from the trip over the back country". So I said, "that's why there were no tire tracks on the road coming up here". Robert said, "well I never use the road, it's more fun coming in from over the hills. And no one comes up here in the summer time, well almost no one". Well great then, so what are you waiting for, a special invitation! Get those duds off and come on in. Well Robert pulled off his shirt, boots, and Levi's.

He jumped in and came over towards us, saying that he was kind of nervous being in here with other folks around. I told Robert not to be nervous, we were just having a little fun, fucking' around. Robert didn't get the hint, so I told Robert, way don't you get out of your underwear and join the, 'fucking' around". Robert said, "what do you mean by fucking around". Jerry said, "let Kevin and I just show you what we mean". Jerry looked at me and motioned me toward the beach and said, "I still have my problem, can you take care of it, Kevin". I said "sure anything for a friend", and I just started walking toward the moss covered beach.

As I came out of the water naked, and of course with a roaring hardon, Robert looked over at me, and as Jerry came into view with his hardon, Robert spoke, saying "fuck those cocks are monsters, mine is nice but not like those". Jerry yelled out, saying lets us see for ourselves. So Robert stood up and pulled off his shorts. "That cock isn't bad, and might even look better when its hard", Jerry said.

So Jerry laid down on his back, and I straddled him like before, only this time we had a little admirer. I started raising and lowering my ass down Jerry's cock, then I started going up and down on Jerry's cock, Jerry started to pump my ass as hard as he could. We both looked over to see what Robert was doing and believe it or not the little fucker had a six inch hardon and was playing with it. Well I looked down at Jerry and said, "might as well ask him to join us, ha". Jerry was moaning and just nodded yes. I yelled to Robert saying don't spoil the fun come on over and join us. Robert stopped playing with himself and walked over and said, "what do I do"? I ask him if he had ever screwed around with anyone else like this? No came his replay. Well then lets take it a step at a time. I told him to just stand over Jerry's head and lower his butt so Jerry could start sucking his cock. He did and Jerry grabbed the fuckers cock and guided it into his mouth, sucking it in, made Robert moan and jump with excitement wiggling like a dog being fucked.

With Robert wound up and on his hands and knees facing my hardon. I didn't say anything, just kept moving up and down on Jerry's cock. This action made my cock bounce around hitting Robert in the face. Robert jerked even more every time my cock touched his face. Jerry pulled his cock out and told him, "suck Kevin's cock". then returned to Robert's hardon, working it over pretty good by now. The kid reached up and got a hold of my cock which was ready to explode by now, with all the attention my ass was getting. Robert slid his mouth over my cock and I told him that his was about to get a mouth full and that little fuck started shooting his load into Jerry's mouth and jerked so much he bit my cock and that triggered me. I shot my load. He had to swallow it, because he couldn't get away from me. Jerry let out with a grown saying, "Kevin I hope you enjoy this", as he shot load after load up my ass. We all got up and headed into the pond again, to wash off. We all were swimming around and Jerry started talking to Robert. He found out that the kid was just 15 and lived about 25 miles south of here, and that the kid never had fucked around like this before with anyone. Well Robert told us that he came up to the hot springs to jackoff, because the hot water felt so good and the daring of being outside turned him on. Well the day was moving on. Jerry and I had to get on the road so we could make it home by night fall, of course if we needed another day we could take it. We said good bye to Robert and I gave him my address and phone number and told him if he was ever in town to look us up. Robert smiled and said, "sure will", started his bike and took off over the hill. We stopped about 25 miles down the road at a McDonald's for lunch then headed on down the road.

A New Buddy is Found

About fifteen minutes after lunch we spotted a hitch-hiker heading our way. I ask Jerry if we should pick him up, he said "sure way not, he might be a lot of fun".

So we pulled over, Jerry asked the dude. What's your name and where he was headed for? The dude said, "my name is Corey, and as far as you can take me".

Jerry slid over to the center and Corey tossed his bag into the back of the truck and got in next to Jerry, slammed the door closed. Jerry started talking to Corey and found out that he work at the Camp about 100 miles north the one Jerry working in. He too was a lifeguard and had just finished high school last spring.

He was just traveling and looking for a winter job. He seemed like a nice enough guy.

Well I drove for about two hours and stopped at a Stuckey's for some drinks and we all took a piss. Jerry ask if he could drive a while, so I told Corey to get in the middle and I climbed in next to him. Well Corey fell a sleep and laid his head on my shoulders. Jerry ask me if that reminded me of anything. Of course it did and I lifted my arm over Corey's head and rested it on his shoulder.

I was not paying attention to Jerry, when Corey started to smile in his sleep, then started to hump a little. So I looked down at his trousers and saw Jerry's hand resting on Corey's crotch, of course Corey was straddling the gear shift. I ask Jerry if it felt good. Jerry replied saying, "feels like he has a hard on, it keeps jerking ever time I rest my hand on it. About his time Corey woke up with a jerk.

Saying, "I'm sorry about falling a sleep on you guys, but had a ruff night last night.

Jerry still was half resting his hand on Corey's crotch, when Corey realized that he had a hardon, his face turned red and he tried to fix it so it didn't show.

I told him not to worry about things like that around us. That was nothing new, every guy gets a hardon when they go to sleep. You should see Jerry and I in the mornings. Corey looked at Jerry then at me, with a dumbfounded look and asked a pointed question. Do you two share an apartment? Sure I replied, 'even the same bed' jokingly! Corey just smiled, and said, "you guys aren't gay, are you"?

Jerry spoke up saying, "why of course not", with a grin on his face, he reached over Corey and grabbed my crotch. Which surprised me, and I jump about 6 inches. We drove about another ten miles, and no one said anything, not even a whisper. Corey broke the silence and ask if we were just joking with him or not?

Well what do you think, Jerry said. Well if you guys aren't, I just fell into a shit house and came out smelling like a rose. I ask what he meant by that remark.

Corey told us that all summer he had a problem that no one at camp could help him with, so old lady thumb and her four daughters had to do!

I spoke up saying, "well do you want to stop here somewhere or wait till later, at a motel"? Corey said, "I'm all sweaty and need a shower first, so lets make it a motel, unless you can find a stream or lake somewhere secluded. I don't want to put on a show for strangers". I told Corey that we were stranger. He said that OK, you know what I mean. I said how old are you anyway? Nineteen came the answer, and you guys, I told Corey that Jerry was just 17 and I was 19. We drove for a long ways and finally we found a motel, not much of one they only had ten cabins and no pool. I went to check in and found out they only had one room available, and it was a double, they said they could put a cot in if we needed it. I went back to the truck and told Jerry and Corey about the room. Corey said, "just get it without the cot, I have an air mattress and sleeping bag with me". I said OK! And went back in and registered, they only charged me for two people without the cot. We went to the cabin, it was much nicer inside the out. Corey started to get his bag out and I told him to wait awhile, just go on in and get yourself cleaned up for dinner, So Corey went in and took a quick shower, the Jerry and I took one separately. Corey went to the office to check on a place to eat. We meet him out side, he got into the truck and told me where the restaurant was. We ate dinner and Corey picked up the tab. We went straight back to the cabin.

Jerry opened the cabin and we finished unloading the truck. After a few minute passed Corey said, "well I think I'll get my bed together". I told Corey why do that this is a queen size bed, and I think we can all fit don't you. Jerry said, "sure come on Corey let see". I was already on the bed and Jerry got in the middle and Corey got on next. Everyone was touching each other but there was room. I said if we get out of these cloths we will have more room. Jerry laughed and got up pulled off his cloths, leaving only his shorts on, then jumped back in the middle of the bed.

I got up and did the same. Then Corey ask again if we were still joking or not.

We both said in unison, dose this look like joking". We both raised our ass's and pulled off our shorts revealing our soft cocks to Corey. Corey said, great then, I give you two a striptease, turn on the radio. Jerry turned on the radio and found a good station. Corey started do the striptease, first went his shirt, I looked at Jerry and the little fucker had a hardon already, and the site of it started getting me horny and my cock started to rise. Corey then shed his socks, one at a time, then started rubbing his tits with one hand and unbuckling this pants with the other. I reached over and took hold of Jerry's hard cock, and Jerry reached for mine.

Corey watched us for a minute or so and then slowly started dropping his pants and as his blue shorts came into view you could see he had a hardon too. Jerry and I were slowly working each other over as we watched Corey's dance. Corey was now dancing around in his shorts with a flag pole standing straight up, and the head of his cock with sticking out of the waist band. Then Corey slipped his hands under the waist band and slowly pulled down his shorts, pulling his hardon down with them, then his cock was free and what a nice looker to. Corey said, "lets daisy chain it OK"! So we all moved about on the bed and each of us started sucking a cock, I Had Corey's and Jerry and mine and Corey connected last by putting Jerry's cock into his mouth. The next thing we all started jerking around playing with balls and pulling on cocks until we all started coming. Corey said, "this is the most fun I have had all summer".

Corey just wouldn't go soft, so Jerry got on top straddling that pole of Corey's slowly guiding it up this ass. Corey started to pump away, in and out of Jerry's ass. This got Jerry hot again and Corey reached up with one hand, grabbing Jerry's tool. With the other, waved a me, to come over. I obliged him and went over. I saw Jerry lean back sticking his legs under Corey's arms this made his cock stand up and wave at me. So I just got up, straddling both of them, lowering myself down onto Jerry's cock. As Jerry slid inside of me, Corey reached up grabbing my pole and started pumping away. Corey said, "god you two must weight a ton, I've never been plugged in so deep. This feels so damn good I could do this all night". About this time my gut felt like I was ready to explode, I just kept trying to hold back from shooting my load, but the feeling was to much and a unloaded all over Corey's tits. Then Corey's was gasping for air as he pumped up Jerry's butt, and filled him with love juice. That triggered Jerry and that good feeling started spraying up my ass.

After, we all took shower and jumped into bed. Together we curled up with arms laying over each other and legs entwined. It felt great all of us naked and curled up like worms. I woke up first and it felt like the bed was soaked with come.

Some wet dream a guess. So I got up to take a shower, and Corey said, "god what a night, I played with you, and had to jackoff twice to make up for the come you guys let fly during the night. I said great you had fun all night and we were your toys, ha! Jerry woke up, stretched and shucked the covers. He was soft as the both of us were. He said, "that's funny this is the first morning without a hardon"!

I told Jerry that we were Corey's play things all night. He said, "that's way I don't have one". OK he said, lets get cleaned up and split this place. So we all got cleaned up, loaded the truck and left.

The End of a Great Vacation

We drove almost all day getting home, as we approach my place I stopped at a main intersection. So we could drop off Corey. He thanked us for be so nice to him. I gave him my phone number and told him to give us a call when he gets settled. He said, "sure enough guys, take care. Jerry was just taking in the sights and smiling at me every so often and saying how the neighborhood looked. We pulled up into my garage and got out of the truck. Jerry said, "You've even got a garage, and the outside of this place looks great, it must cost a bundle?" I said, "Not bad only 300 a month, and that includes utilities." We unloaded the gear and pack it up to my apartment. I opened the door and went to the windows and opened them up to air out the place. Jerry walked around looking at everything. I said, "Well what do you think, not bad is it?" Jerry replied, "Shit, it's great and the bed is just right to, small so you can't get away from me at night." I told him that he didn't seem to have any problems finding me at the cabin in that double bed.

Well you may as well make yourself at home, and put your things away. As soon as I put my stuff away, we can hit the store for food.

We finished stowing our gear and Jerry said, "It's late, and there's a store open now?" Oh yea! I said. So we took off and headed for the Food Mart. We shopped around and picked up enough groceries for a couple of days.. I figured we may be in bed fucking, for that long. Jerry asked me if we could drive around for a while. So I started down main street, then the kid spotted a sex shop and said, "Lets go in!" I told him that I had a false ID, but he couldn't get in, he was to young. He said, "Let me try, sometimes those guys don't care." I said, "OK" and parked the truck, we put the food inside the cab and locked it.

We enter the shop and the old fucker running the place asked for ID, I showed him mine, he said OK but not him, pointing at Jerry. I asked the guy if I brought my brother in, if he would kind of look the other way. He nodded yes! So we started looking around and Jerry looked at the sex aids, finding a belly button tool. He bought it without telling me. I looked over at Jerry and the fucker had a hardon. I moved over to him and said, "You had enough looking at these fuck books for tonight, its getting late." He said, "OK, I just never been in a place like this before." We got home, I turned on the TV and started flipping the channels. Jerry said, "Got cable to, Great!" Oh yea, couldn't do without it. That was before I moved in, the kid said. He started pulling off his shirt, saying it's hot down here, then his shoes and socks, followed by his jeans, standing there in his shorts he looked great. I pulled my cloths off, down to my shorts. We sat watching TV for a while. Jerry got up to take a piss and get a beer for both of us, when he came back he handed me one.

Then he tossed his new toy over to me and said, "I think we can try it out tonight."

I looked at it and read the instructions. This thing straps on like a belt, the person warning it inserts one end of the shaft into his own belly button, than walks around looking like he has two cocks. Jerry said, "let try it out", standing up and pulling off his shorts. I went into the bedroom and pulled off my shorts. Jerry reached out an took the belt, strapped it around his waist. You look funny standing there with two dicks sticking out. He laughed and got on the bed. I laid down next to him and started playing with his cock and balls. He started flipping my cock around and worked it hard. We played around with each other until our cock were as hard as rock. Jerry then told me to get on top and lie down on the other end of the shaft. I rolled over onto Jerry guiding the shaft into my belly button. As it entered the kid jumped he said, "shit that feels good." We couldn't find a position where we could touch our cocks. So we humped away on our stomachs rubbing our cock together, which felt great. That extra shaft was doing it's job because we were getting so turned on and I started kissing Jerry, then he stuck his tongue into my mouth. Suddenly I felt the kid flinch and wiggle driving the stick deeper into both of us. He grunted and groaned saying. "God I'm coming and unloaded between us and I ground my cock harder against his and pop my cookies, oh shit oh fuck Jerry I love you. I shot my load up between us.

I rolled over and Jerry took off the belt laying it on the floor. He was sticky, and so was I. He leaned over and started licking the mixed come off my stomach and chest. I put my hand on his head and stopped him. Lets do this right, now lets get into a 69 position and clean each other. He moved around and licked my chest and nipples, while I did the same to him. We worked from the nipples to the belly button, then I felt the kid stick the tip of this tongue in mine and work it over, it felt great.. So I returned the favor, but Jerry didn't stop there, the next thing I felt was his warm mouth on my semi-soft cock, sucking it. I looked up, Jerry's cock was hard again, so I started sucking it. It took a little longer this time. But Jerry's stomach began to twitch, his muscles quivered and he let out with grunt oh, don't stop Kevin don't stop. I'm coming. Then Jerry started sucking my cock again. I shot my load deep into his mouth. Jerry just fell on top of me. We laid on top of the sheets naked as Jay Birds and I turned out the lights.

Jerry rolled me over towards him so we were face to face, I rapped my arms around him, and he rapped his arms around me. We curled up and Jerry said, "Sweet dreams Kevin, I love you so much!" I said, "Jerry you have got to be the best thing that has ever happened to me, we did the right thing, goodnight Jerry, I love you." Jerry and I kissed each other until we fell asleep on top of the bed with the warm air flowing over us.

We slept the night through and woke up in each other's arms. It took awhile to stretch out of our embrace. When we did separate I looked down, and Jerry had his morning hardon and I had mine.

I gently reached over and rubbed my lovers cock and gently circle my finger around each of his nipples. Jerry reached my cock and played with my balls and gently stroked my pole. We didn't say a word to each other. Just moved around on the bed until the kid got up and straddled my hips, sitting down on my cock letting it slid up his ass to the hilt. I started fucking him slowly while stroking his purple cock. I felt myself explode shooting several loads of come up his ass.

Then his stomach got tight, I raised up and put his throbbing cock into my mouth, just as he shot his load, I sucked him dry.

We laid on the bed and talked about the great vacation that turned into a beautiful friendship of two guy that found each other.

Jerry had tears in his eyes, I asked, "What's wrong kid." Jerry threw his arms around me and squeezed me so tight saying, "I want this friendship to last forever." I told Jerry, "This friendship will last forever." Next year we would celebrate our anniversary by taking a vacation together back at the lake.

So ends the Great Vacation!
